Pravda Hints At Cutting Ties With Peking

Soviet Newspaper Says Issue Must Be Reckoned With

BY REINHOLD ENSZ

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Communist newspaper Pravda indicated today that the Kremlin may be thinking of formally severing ties between the Communist parties of the Soviet Union and China.

"The threat of a split is a reality which the world Communist movement must reckon with," said an article in the party newspaper.

"Marxist-Leninists do not want a split, but unity cannot be attained through concessions on matters of principle, nor does it come by itself."

Would Weaken Reds

It was one of the strongest Soviet statements yet on the Moscow-Peking feud. But Western diplomats in Moscow do not believe a break in party relations would mean a break in relations between the Soviet and Chinese governments. The diplomats believe the Soviets want to keep some lines of communication open.

The article said a split between the Soviet and Chinese parties would "seriously weaken the struggle of the world Communist movement against imperialism."

The article urged convocation of a world Communist meeting and said the "majority of the Communist parties in all regions of the world is going on record for its early convocation."

Briton Backs Proposed Annual Summit Talks

LONDON (AP) — Labor party leader Harold Wilson returned today from a four-day visit to Moscow and said he thought the Western powers should support the idea of annual summit meetings.

Purchase Offer to Ottawa Firm Made By Appleton Wire

74.2 Per Cent Stock Sale Would Unite Buchanan Holdings

has offered to purchase 74.2 per cent of the issued and outstanding common stock of Capital Wire Cloth Ltd. of Ottawa, Canada, it was announced today by William E. Buchanan, president.

Should the purchase materialize, it would unite two similar firms founded by members of the Buchanan family in the United States and Canada. The Ottawa concern was founded in 1912 by John Buchanan, son of one of the founders of Appleton Wire Works.

Appleton Wire Works has offered to purchase 222,500 of Capital Wire's 300,000 outstanding shares for $12.50 per share in Canadian funds. Capital's stock is listed on the Montreal Stock Exchange and was quoted early this week at $10 per share.

Directors of Capital, who control more than 51 per cent of the outstanding stock, have indicated their intent to tender their shares plus those they control for purchase and will recommend that other stockholders do likewise.

Same Lines

The Ottawa company manufactures generally the same lines of wire cloth, Fourdrinier wires and other wire products for the paper and pulp industry as does Appleton Wire Works.

While Canada is its principal market, it does some export business and it recently constructed a plant for the manufacture of paper mill wire in Australia. Its three plants in Canada are at Ottawa, Westminister, British Columbia, and Perth, Ontario.

Appleton Wire Works was founded in Appleton in 1895 by William Buchanan, his son, G. E. Buchanan and A. B. Weisenborn, who was a brother-in-law of William Buchanan, and the grandfather of Bruce Purdy, present vice president of the firm. The current president is the son of G. E. Buchanan.

John Buchanan, son of William Buchanan, joined the Appleton firm three years later, in 1898, but left here in 1912 to found the firm at Ottawa.

4 Terrorists Seized By Police in Saigon

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Saigon police nabbed four Communist terrorists today and said one admitted planting a grenade at a Saigon bar Feb. 1 that killed one American serviceman and seriously injured another.

The fundamental principle of one vote for one person is at stake," said Marvin Klitzner, attorney for the two newspaper executives.

Klitzner said the court should take jurisdiction because the case involves "the core of the Democratic process," it is a clear constitutional issue with statewide application and direct action by the state's highest court would avoid a multiplicity of suits in circuit courts.

Harold J. Wollenzien, corporation counsel for Waukesha County, noted that the Legislature has set up a study committee on county government and that the court should not enter the legislative field.

"Do you think the Legislature will do anything unless the law is invalidated?" asked Chief Justice George R. Currie.

Wollenzien said he thought today that he will agree to the Legislature would act. "We peace talks only if Premier Souphannouvong throws out Leader Waukesha," he said, "and there may be in other countries."

Johnson Gives No Hint About Viet Nam Move

President and His Advisers Aim at Cooling Off Period

BY JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson kept tight secrecy today on what—if any—moves he is planning to make to step up the fight against Communist forces in Southeast Asia.

A White House statement issued Wednesday night gave some indication, however, that Johnson and his advisers have decided to soft-pedal talk of drastic action such as enlarging the war in Viet Nam, at least for the time being.

Johnson received a report from Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara on the results of two days of intensive policy review which they conducted at a conference in Hawaii earlier this week.

No Word of Decisions

Several days ago officials had indicated that the conference would very likely result in presidential decisions to deal with what then appeared to be a serious crisis in Southeast Asia due to Communist advances primarily in Laos.

When Wednesday night's meeting ended, George Reedy, presidential press secretary, issued this statement:

Changes Plea in Abduction Case

MADISON (AP) — Thomas F. Howard, 26, of the Milwaukee suburb of Hales Corners, changed his plea from innocent to guilty Wednesday to a charge of child abduction.

Howard is accused of picking up a 2-year-old Madison girl March 30 and driving her two blocks from her home before she was released unhurt.

County Judge William Buehler continued Howard's bond at $10,000 and ordered a pre-sentence investigation to permit the defendant to continue to receive psychiatric treatment. Buehler said he would impose sentence in two weeks.

Union and Firm Agree To Confer

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Police arrested 23 pickets Wednesday during the third day of strike violence at the Pressed Steel Tank Co., in neighboring West Allis. Two police officers were injured.

Because of the growing clashes, Morris Slavney, chairman of the Wisconsin Employment Relations Board (WERB), said he arranged a meeting with company and spokesman for Local 1569 of the United Steelworkers for today. He said both sides had agreed to attend.

"We are concerned about the maintenance of peace," Slavney said. "We want to work out something on a voluntary basis. We have no power to order them to do so now."

Firm Files Complaint

The WERB received an unfair labor practices complaint from the company Wednesday. Similar to the one filed Tuesday with the National Labor Relations Board, it claims coercion by the pickets against college students who began to work in the plant Monday with the start of summer vacations.

Slavney said that under state law, a hearing cannot be held for 10 days. The local, with about 650 members, has been on strike since April 1. The major issue reportedly is the union request for a one-year agreement against the company's offer of a three-year pact.

Also taken to the West Allis police station Wednesday was a 19-year-old Marquette University student accused by a picket of "slugging back." The youth was released.

Officials said 24 students, twice the number of the previous two days, entered the plant Wednesday. They were pushed through about 150 pickets by police in two separate charges.

There were about 50 pickets at the gates when the students dashed from the plant in the afternoon.

Sixteen pickets were arrested in the morning and seven in the afternoon. They were charged with disorderly conduct, as were the five arrested earlier.

Two officers were taken to hospitals for treatment and released. One received a hand injury, the other a bruised leg.

Chauffeur Shoots Ethiopian Envoy

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP) — The Ethiopian ambassador to Sweden was shot and seriously wounded today by his Polish chauffeur, the Stockholm Criminal Police reported.

The police said Ambassador Abate Agede was hit by three revolver bullets. The shooting occurred on the embassy grounds.

A police spokesman said the chauffeur, whose name was withheld, had received orders from the ambassador which he refused to obey. During the argument, the Pole suddenly drew his revolver and fired three shots, the spokesman said.

Agede, 41, was stationed at Ethiopia's embassy in Washington and was a member of his country's U.N. delegation before coming to Stockholm in March 1963.

The chauffeur was brought to police headquarters for questioning.

Iowa Senator Adds Name To Backers of Proposal

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate leaders bent on passing the civil rights bill brushed aside today suggestions their chances of cutting off the debate had been hurt by the California primary or a tactical maneuver of Southern opponents.

At the same time Sen. Jack Miller, R-Iowa, removed himself from the ranks of the uncommitted and announced he will vote next Tuesday—the day set for a showdown—to put the Senate's debate-limiting cloture rule into effect.

Won't Change Course

A two-thirds majority will be required, or 67 votes if all 100 senators vote, to halt a Southern filibuster against the bill by clamping a tight limit on further debate, now in its 70th day.

Assistant Democratic Leader Hubert H. Humphrey and Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen said they have no intention of being deflected from the course set earlier in the week to wind up the debate and pass the bill.

They discounted reports that the refusal of Senate leaders to accept an offer from the Dixie contingent to vote on several amendments this week had hurt their chances of mustering the necessary margin for cloture.

Denies Cloture Affected

Humphrey and Dirksen also said the victory of Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., in California's presidential primary, would have no effect on the drive to limit debate despite

Soviet Flag Flies at Festival in Spain

SAN SEBASTIAN, Spain (AP) — The Soviet Hammer and Sickle flew here today on the eve of the opening of the 12th San Sebastian film festival.

The flag, displayed here publicly for probably the first time since the Spanish civil war, appeared with those of 17 other countries with entries in the festival, which opens Friday and runs through June 14.

Festival directors said seven Russians would head a delegation of 26 from behind the Iron Curtain.

This is the first year in which a Soviet entry and delegation have been welcomed.

Skyraiders Ordered to S. Viet Nam

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Maj. Gen. Joseph H. Moore, commander of the 2nd Air Division, said today new Skyraider fighter-bombers are being brought into South Viet Nam to step up the war against Communist Viet Cong forces and not because the planes they replace are obsolete or unsafe.

Moore said the single-seater A1H and the two-seater A1E Skyraiders are bigger, faster and heavier than the T28 fighter-bombers and B26 light bombers that have been carrying on the air operations.

"They can carry a wider variety of ordnance. They have more endurance and great flying time."

Moore denied reports the T28 and B26 were obsolete or unsafe.

Referring to Goldwater's defeat of New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, Humphrey said the vote in California "hurt Rockefeller, not cloture."

But Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., leader of the Southern senators battling the civil rights bill, said he thought Goldwater's victory might cause some senators to change their minds and "vote against gag rule."

The offer of the Southern forces after a caucus two days ago to start voting on amendments marked a switch in strategy in an apparent effort to head off a limitation on debate.

There is some difference of opinion over whether Goldwater's defeat of Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller in Tuesday's California primary carried the senator over his last big hurdle toward the Republican presidential nomination.

Early Fireworks

But if Goldwater is nominated at the mid-July convention here, the fireworks probably will start exploding even before the August Democratic convention goes through the formality of nominating the President.

Goldwater, the conservative, would strive to offer "a choice, because of the limitations on what a president can say publicly. Johnson has not indicated if he will debate his opponent on TV. But Johnson has shown a yen for the kind of crowd hopping and individual handshaking that Goldwater gives every sign of detesting. However, if Goldwater is the Republican nominee, he probably would have to campaign on the supermarket circuit.

In his California campaign, the senator laid out the pattern of the attack he could be expected to make on Johnson in a general election contest.

Alleges Appeasement

Among other things, Goldwater said the administration's foreign policies offered a "path to suicide," that the country faced "another Korea" in South Viet Nam and might lose all of Southeast Asia to the Communists.

"We are following the same

Lively Presidential Race Certain If GOP Nominates Sen. Goldwater

not an echo," to Johnson's professed liberalism.

The senator described himself to California audiences as "the only Republican who has the ghost of a chance of beating Lyndon Johnson."

He called the California primary outcome "a victory for the great majority of Republicans across the country who share my belief that Lyndon Baines Johnson can be beaten in 1964 if we Republicans concentrate our fire on him and not on each other."

All signs indicate that Johnson would welcome Goldwater as his opponent. The President, an experienced performer on the stump might even be tempted into a television debate with Goldwater, who has been accused by critics in his own party of firing carelessly from his in some statements on major issues.

South Korea Faces Martial Law as Violence Continues

Student Demonstrations at Capital, Provincial Cities

SEOUL, South Korea (AP) — Troops entered the capital during the night. Troops with fixed bayonets on their rifles patrolled major streets in Seoul. Demonstrations in four Korean provincial cities today and President Park's Cabinet threatened to place the entire country under martial law.

More than 6,000 students overran police lines in a rock-throwing riot in Kwangju, 150 miles south of Seoul. Police tried to scatter the students in front of the provincial government building and shouted for Park's resignation and the lifting of martial law in Seoul.

Many students and policemen were reported injured.

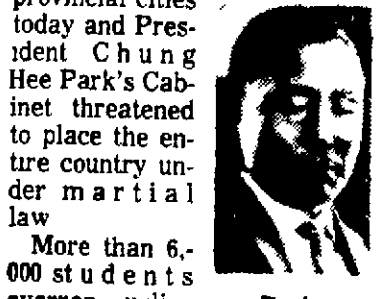

Troops Busy in Seoul

Less violent demonstrations broke out in Incheon, Pusan and Chunchon. More than 2,000 high school and college students were involved.

Heavy troop reinforcements kept Seoul quiet, enforcing martial law proclaimed by Park in the capital after 30,000 students and adults rioted Wednesday. More than 600 police and demonstrators were injured and 91 persons were arrested.

After an emergency Cabinet meeting today, a Cabinet spokesman said martial law would be extended to the rest of the country if the demonstrations continued.

Dust-covered trucks moved to bed.

Gen. Min Ki-shik, chief of staff of South Korea's 600,000-man army, took personal command of the city under the military decree.

The outbreak in Seoul Wednesday was by far the most serious challenge to Park's regime.

At first, the students demanded cancellation of talks with Korea's ancient enemy, Japan, aimed at restoring diplomatic and commercial relations. But in the past month the protests have broadened to complaints of police rule, dictatorship, official corruption, inflation and unemployment.

Gas Eruptions Ruin 80-Acre Oklahoma Tract

NASH, Okla. (AP)—Gas eruptions have turned an 80-acre tract of land in north-central Oklahoma into a quagmire, a farm couple said Wednesday.

"It just blew up and we had to move our cattle out," said Neil Wilkins.

One cow died and a veterinarian said it was gassed, Wilkins said.

The land is about one mile from a half dozen gas wells. Mrs. Wilkins said since the eruptions, the ground had become like quicksand and dangerous to walk on.

Craters ranging from inches to 50 yards in length and 30 yards in width quickly filled with water, Wilkins said.

Abbe Lane and Cugat Divorced

JUAREZ, Mexico (AP)—The 12-year marriage of singer Abbe Lane and band leader Xavier Cugat ended with a quickie divorce in Juarez's Civil Court Wednesday.

"The divorce was so quick, I still don't know what I'm doing," said Miss Lane a few hours later in an interview at an airport in San Antonio, Texas. Cugat didn't contest the divorce.

Rocky Says Barry May Win Republican Nod on First Ballot

NEW YORK (AP)—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller says present indications are that Sen. Barry Goldwater will win the Republican presidential nomination on the first or second ballot at the national convention—but "I'm staying right in this to the end."

"There's a long time between now and the convention in San Francisco and it's hard to tell what is going to happen," he said.

At a news conference Wednesday, Rockefeller discussed his loss of 88 delegates to Goldwater in Tuesday's California primary and looked ahead to the Republican National Convention opening July 13.

Ear for Sound Helps Spelling, Educator Says

WASHINGTON (AP)—In spelling, as in music, many youngsters have an ear for sound.

That's the opinion of Dr. Richard R. Baker, professor of philosophy at the University of Dayton, Ohio, who as pronouncer for the 37th national spelling bee is the sound for the boys and girls who must spell the tongue-twisters he tosses at them.

At day's end Wednesday, Baker had pronounced, defined and frequently used in sentences, 494 words.

Of the 70 youngsters from 33 states and the District of Columbia who started the competition only 27 remained for today's final rounds. The 27 survivors were 17 girls and 10 boys.

The contest started with 44 girls and 26 boys competing for the $5,700 in prizes, including a first prize of $1,000 and a weekend trip to the New York World's Fair.

This is the fourth time Baker has acted as pronouncer for the bee which this year is sponsored by Scripps-Howard papers in 16 cities and 53 other daily and Sunday papers.

Many of the youngsters guessed at some of the words and heaved a sigh of relief after finding out their guess was correct. A misspelled word meant the sounding of a small bell by three judges and elimination of the contestant.

OSC Teacher Says Education Is Journey, Not Destination

Dr. William E. White Addresses Graduation Exercises at OCTC

KAUKAUNA — "Education will help you on a journey toward a destination you never will reach," Dr. William E. White, executive assistant to the president of Wisconsin State College-Oshkosh told the graduating class of Outagamie County Teachers College here Wednesday night.

He chose as his subject topic "Education a Journey — Not a Destination."

Education, he stressed, should help you to get along without teachers and without parents in order to live a satisfying life in a rapidly changing society.

Dr. White cited four major statements in addressing the graduates. First was the Chinese proverb that "Knowledge doesn't keep any better than fish."

More knowledge has been discovered in the last 10 years than the total of all man's accumulated knowledge to that point, he outlined.

"Impossible to Teach All"

"It is impossible for colleges to teach students or prospective teachers all he needs to know to carry him through his professional career," Dr. White stressed.

His second major statement was that "Education cannot be something you have had." Two years, four years or eight years of college is not sufficient to carry you through your lifetime.

The demand for education has leges and high schools are re-establishing the prestige of the intellectual.

"The top scholar in a class is gaining as much recognition as the athlete or the prom queen."

Scholarship is not enough, Dr. White cited as his fourth major statement to the graduates. He pointed out there is no measurable difference at Wisconsin State College - Oshkosh, whether it be IQ, sex or home community, between students who drop out because of low grades.

"Hard work, persistence, accuracy and thoroughness are necessary along with intellectual achievement," Dr. White emphasized.

Former Appleton Catholic Pastor To Note Jubilee

The Very Rev. Cyprian Ahler, OFM Cap., former pastor of St. Joseph Catholic Church, Appleton, will celebrate his golden jubilee in the priesthood Saturday in Milwaukee.

Father Cyprian was pastor of St. Joseph Church from 1936 to 1945. The Capuchin pastors ordinarily stay for only six years, but his term was extended because of World War II.

He will celebrate a mass of thanksgiving on the occasion of his golden jubilee at 10:30 a.m. Saturday in St. Benedict the Moor Church, 1027 N. Ninth St., Milwaukee. A luncheon will follow in the church hall.

Now Invalid

Father Cyprian is now an invalid, and lives at St. Mary Seminary, Crown Point, Ind.

He was born in 1885 near Mt. Calvary. He was stationed for 11 years each in Detroit, Mich., and Yonkers, N. Y., before coming to St. Joseph Church.

After leaving Appleton, he served for six years as provincial of the Capuchin order for the Province of St. Joseph, which covers the northwestern United States, with headquarters in Detroit.

Lutheran Executive to Be Seminary Professor

The Rev. Dr. Clarence B. Lund, assistant to the president of the Minnesota Synod, Lutheran Church in America, will become professor of parish education and liturgics on August 1 at Northwestern Lutheran Theological Seminary, Minneapolis.

He was announced by Dr. C. H. Kessler, seminary president, today.

Dr. Lund, who has written and lectured widely on parish education and church music, and whose special responsibility in his office in the Minnesota Synod has been in parish education, is a native of Minneapolis. He is a graduate of Carthage College and Northwestern Seminary and was ordained in 1934. In 1957 Carthage College awarded him the Doctor of Divinity degree.

Prior to the organization of the Lutheran Church in America he was Parish Education Secretary of the Northwest Synod from 1954 to 1962.

Braves Snap 4-Game Loss String; Down Reds Behind Lemaster

Three Homers Give Milwaukee 3-2 Win; Lemaster Whiffs 10

BY DAVID O'HARA

MILWAUKEE (AP)—The 31st starting lineup used by Milwaukee Manager Bobby Bragan, in 46 games this season proved a lucky charm. It provided power to go with good pitching and brought smiles back to the Braves' clubhouse.

The Braves snapped a four-game losing streak as Denny Lemaster turned in a six-hit, 10 strikeout effort and Lee Maye and Denny Menke belted homers in a 3-2 victory over Cincinnati Wednesday night before a paid crowd of 11,834 at County Stadium.

A total of 13,230 school teachers turned out for their annual "night." They were admitted free of charge, but some 4,000 elected to accept reserved seats for a reduced price and were counted in the "paid" attendance.

Cheered on by the big turnout on a chilly evening, the Braves snapped out of their slump and regained fifth place from the Reds. Milwaukee remained five games behind first-place Philadelphia as Lemaster became the first member of the Braves' pitching staff to go the distance in the last seven outings.

The Braves jumped out in front as Maye, back in left field with right-hander Jim Maloney on the mound for the Reds, opened the first inning with a single to right and Eddie Mathews, hitless in 13 straight trips to the plate, lined a hit to the same sector. After Hank Aaron grounded into a forceout at second, Maye scored on a wild pitch.

With one out in the second, the Reds set the stage for a run on Lemaster's only walk. After a fielder's choice, singles by Johnny Edwards and Steve Boros did the damage.

Vada Pinson cracked his sixth homer in the sixth but Maye promptly tied the count again with his fourth homer, a long

Favor Palmer, Nicklaus in 'Thunderbird' Pros Warming Up For U. S. Open Two Weeks Away

RYE, N.Y. (AP)—Jack Nicklaus says he can't drive, and Arnold Palmer says he is so rusty his backswing creates little brown clouds.

That's enough to make them favorites in the Thunderbird Golf Tournament which opened today at the Westchester Country Club course.

The two big men of golf share that designation in any tournament they enter, and they have something extra going for them in the rich $100,000 test on the par 72, 6,573-yard course.

To start with, this is the tournament where both plan to begin getting ready for the U.S. Open, which comes up in two weeks on the Congressional course in Washington, D.C.

Add to that the fact that Palmer is the defending champion. Add that Palmer and Nicklaus are two of only five golfers who have won two tournaments this year.

And add the $20,000 first prize. The two money machines are noted for refusing to leave that kind of cash around for the others.

Gary Player, the third member of the Mark McCormack stable, also is rated a good chance. He won the 500 Festival last week, and is another who has won two tournaments this year.

The other two with a pair of victories are Billy Casper and Mike Souchak, both in the field here. Open champion Julius Boros also is entered.

Among the others are British Open champion Bob Charles, old Sam Snead, even older Vic Ghezzi who won the PGA back in 1941, Champagne Tony Lema, Dow Finsterwald and Tony Manero, who won the U.S. Open in 1936.

Nicklaus, the longest driver in the game, says his approach shots and putting are pretty good. "But I can't drive at all." He then proceeded to hang out several beautiful drives in the pre-am before rain washed out play Wednesday.

Palmer hadn't played since the Memphis Open two weeks ago.

"When I lay off two days I feel like I've been off two weeks, and I've only played a couple of times since Memphis," Palmer said. "I'm real rusty."

Sepich Hits Homer in 5-2 Triumph

CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia. — Ed Hawkins scattered seven hits and doubled home a run in leading the Fox Cities Foxes to a 5-2 victory over Cedar Rapids here Wednesday night.

The victory gave the Foxes a clean sweep of the 3-game series against the Red Raiders and it was their fifth consecutive win. The Foxes remained 3½ games off the pace as first place Clinton also was victorious.

Tonight the Foxes move over the Wisconsin Rapids where they will meet the rival Senators in a 3-game series before returning home Sunday.

The Foxes took the lead in the third when John Sepich led off the inning with a 340-foot homer over the left field barrier.

Hawkins was given a 4-0 lead with three tallies in the fourth. Stan Walters singled and John Burrows was safe on an error. Hawkins doubled to score Walters and Sepich followed with a single to plate Burrows. Hawkins scored when John Matias grounded out.

The final run for the Foxes came in the ninth when Matias walked and scored on successive singles by Dave May and Fred Rico.

Dick Rowe led Cedar Rapids with three hits in four trips, two singles and a homer in the fourth. The other run for the Raiders came in the seventh when Larry Ownbey singled and Chuck Willey doubled as the Foxes right fielder could not find the ball in the lights.

Neenah, Appleton in Field

Bluejays Defend Tennis Title

BY GEORGE MANCOSKY

Post-Crescent Staff Writer

NEENAH — Defending champion Menasha and Milwaukee Nicolet appear to be the leading contenders for the team championship in the WIAA state tennis tournament here Friday and Saturday.

In addition to Menasha, the Fox Cities entrants in the meet are Neenah (with a full team) and Appleton (in doubles). Jeff Rushton and Brian Beck give the Terrors a doubles combination in state tournament play for the first time in history.

First Round Bye

The meet includes 30 schools, 21 which qualified last year in the sections last week. Singles matches will be played at the high school courts beginning at 8:30 a.m. Friday. Doubles are scheduled at the Doty and Washington Park courts. Semi-finals and finals in both divisions are slated for the high school courts Saturday morning.

Menasha will be represented by Pat Keane and Tom Vanderhyden, third and fourth, respectively, in the singles last year and Barry Conway and Bill Kramel in doubles. Conway made up half of the doubles outfit which was No. 3 last year. All of Menasha's entries draw first round byes.

Neenah will have Lloyd Hewitt and Dave Koehn in singles and Greg Brabbee-Bob Kraus in a doubles. Koehn draws a first round bye while Hewitt will meet Tim Dougherty of Janesville. The doubles team faces Janesville.

Rushton and Beck, runners-up in doubles in the Menasha section, will face John Lanz and Dave Zimhauer of Wausau in the first round.

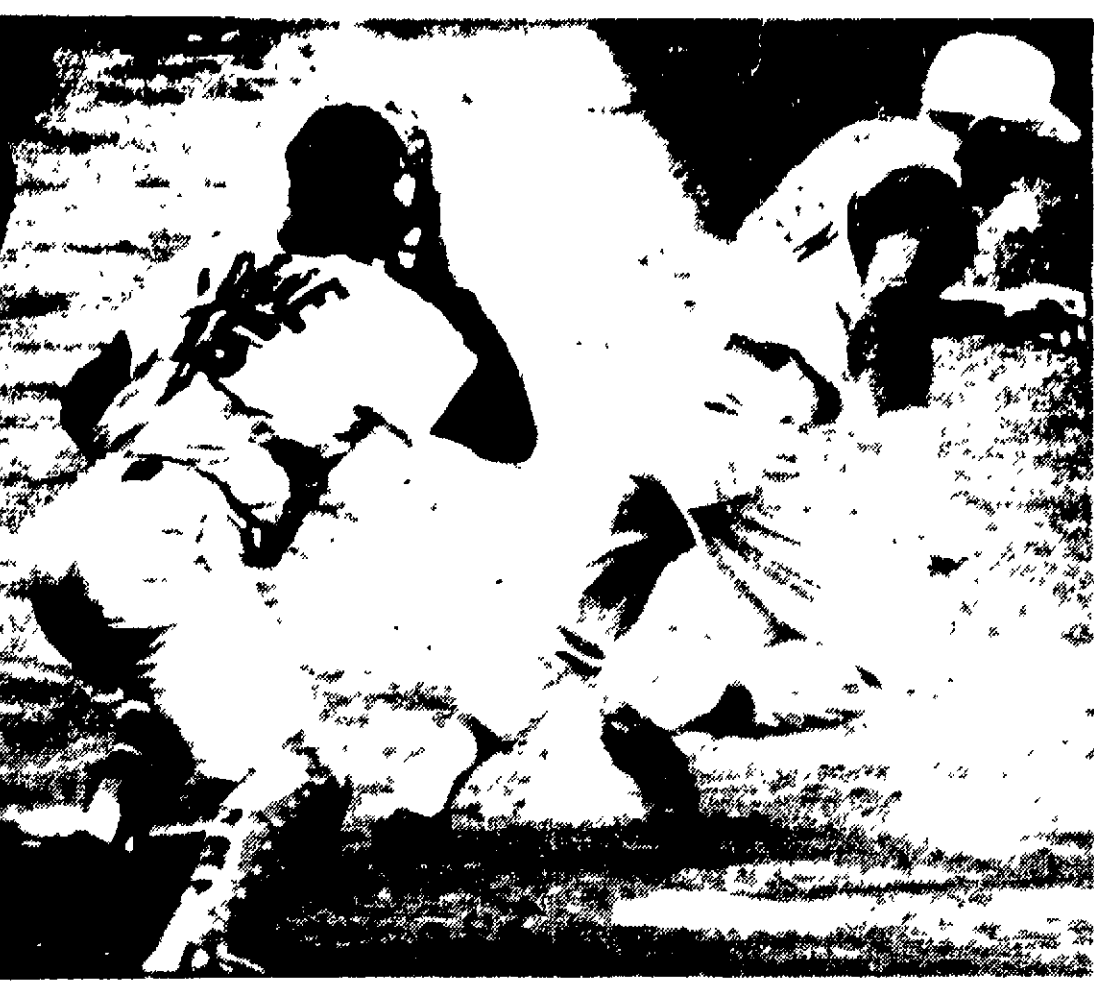

Szalagyi, the 1962 singles king and half of the 1963 doubles title, tops the Nicolet contingent which also includes the other half of last year's tandem title, Pete Bronson. Szalagyi is seeded No. 1 in singles and has won 23 straight matches. Bronson is paired with Pete Adams, a foreign exchange student from South Africa.

Kramer Top Threat

Manitowoc, which finished second last year, will be represented by a high-rated singles performer in Pete Kramer, who has 14-0. He was a member of the No. 2 doubles team a year ago and the winning doubles combination of 1962.

Jerry Jerabek, in singles, and Jan Skarud and Larry Karbon, in doubles, are Manitowoc's other entries. Sheboygan North is represented by David Kasey and Mark Kalkreuth, singles, and Dave Schneider — Chuck Fetterer in doubles.

A new singles champ is assured since Oshkosh's Dan Block, the 1963 titleist, was declared ineligible for playing in the Sugar Bowl tourney.

Taking It On the Chin was Cincinnati's Deron Johnson after hitting a short chopper in front of the plate at Milwaukee County Stadium against the Braves Wednesday night. Johnson avoided getting hit, however, and catcher Joe Torre threw him out at first. The Braves won, 3-2. (AP Wirephoto)

Terrors Seek WIAA Golf Crown at Muni

Janesville's Defending Chmapion Among Links Field of 28 Schools

The Appleton High School golf team will compete Friday and Saturday in the state public high school golf meet for the sixth time in the last seven years. The meet will be held on the Reid Municipal course for the second straight year.

Appleton golfers entered in the team competition are Rick Martinek, John Schulenburg, Bob Ness, Terry Wegner and Bob Boeing.

Neenah High School will be represented by Dave Buchberger, who qualified on an individual basis to shoot for the medalist title won last year by Richland Center's Bob Burnham. Buchberger shot a 76 to qualify for the meet. Low qualifier was Janesville's Don Nitz, with a 70.

The Terrors will be gunning to better their best previous finish in the meet, having finished fourth in 1961. Among the 28 schools entered are Janesville, 1963 champion, and Jefferson, runnerup last year and low qualifier this year with 393. Appleton tied for 12th in the qualifying round with 315 for the four best cards.

Other schools in the meet are Black River Falls, Whitefish Bay, Rice Lake, Milwaukee Center, Fond du Lac, Richland Center, Beloit, Merrill, Manitowoc, Madison East, Waukesha, Greendale, Cudahy, Milwaukee Boys Tech, La Crosse Central, Eagle River, Sheboygan North, Platteville, Menomonee Falls, Eau Claire Memorial, Oconomowoc, Kenosha, Luck, Menomonee and Delavan-Darien.

Individual qualifiers, in addition to Buchberger, include Robert Powers, Milwaukee Washington, 71; Mike Kelly, Madison West, 72; Gary Snyder, Fort Atkinson, 73; Russ Brandt, Milwaukee Washington, 74; Erick Sydanmaa, Wisconsin Rapids, and Brian Wiese, Elkhart Lake.

New London '9', Oshkosh Duel for Sectional Crown

Bulldogs Beat West DePere; Indians Blank Fish Creek, 4-0

BY DON CASTONIA

Post-Crescent Staff Writer

OSHKOSH — New London and Oshkosh will square off at 11 a.m. Friday for the WIAA baseball sectional championship and a berth in the state tournament starting here next Thursday.

New London beat West DePere 9-1 behind the 2-hit pitching of Gary Glocke while Oshkosh was taking the measure of Gibraltar High School of Fish Creek, 4-0, on a 3-hitter by Lynn Peterson. Jim McDaniels is expected to be on the mound for New London and Bill Gogolewski for Oshkosh Friday morning.

The Bulldogs chased West DePere ace Steve Wilmet with a 4-run uprising in the fifth that iced the contest after they had taken a 3-1 lead the previous inning.

Unearned Run

The only run off Glocke came in the third inning and was unearned. Neither of the hits caused any trouble as Glocke picked the first man off base and the second hit came with 2 out in the seventh.

New London jumped off to a 1-0 lead in the second as Jim McDaniels led off with a triple in the right field corner. Alan Koztrzak ran for McDaniels and scored on John Moriarity's single.

After the Black Phantoms tied the count in the third without a hit, New London pushed across 12 runs in the fourth on a walk, 2 errors and a wild pitch, all after 2 were out.

The flood gates opened in the fifth as Jeff Rugatska led off with a single, stole second and took third on a wild pitch. Lee Drews walked and Rugatska scored on Dave Dernbach's single with Drews holding second.

Drews and Dernbach then executed a double steal and Glocke laid down a perfect bunt with Drews beating the throw to the plate. Dernbach later scored on McDaniels' infield out and Glocke scored on a throwing error.

Insurance Runs

New London added 2 insurance runs in the seventh as Dernbach led off with a single. After Tom Fuhrmann and Glocke grounded out, McDaniels, Moriarity and Joe Mularky delivered consecutive singles. Dernbach, McDaniels, Moriarity and Rugatska each had 2 hits for the Bulldogs. Norb Hill and John Garsow had DePere's only hits. Glocke walked only 2 and struck out 4 in gaining the triumph.

All 4 of Oshkosh's runs were unearned as Greg Bell matched Peterson pitch-for-pitch most of the game. His teammates committed 7 errors, however, giving Oshkosh an unearned run in the second and 3 more in the third. Sophomore Tom Madden

Giants Blank Pirates; Cards Bring Halt to Cubs' Victory Streak

Phillies Nip Dodgers, 1-0, in 11-Inning Battle

BY MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Willie Mays has dropped another fly ball for an error. Why 10 years ago he did the same thing.

San Francisco's great center fielder made the error Wednesday night, but it was harmless as the Giants blanked Pittsburgh 3-0.

Donn Clendenon was the recipient of Mays' rare generosity with two out in the seventh inning. Mays ran back for Clendenon's fly ball, turned around and waited, ready to eat up the ball with his famous basket catch. His teammates already had started leaving the field when the ball fell into his glove. They came back when the ball fell out.

The last time that happened was on Sept. 9, 1954, in the Polo Grounds against the Chicago Cubs. Ernie Banks was the batter.

Just one inning before the ball got away from Mays for his first error of the season, Mays had trouble getting away from the ball. As a result, he is in the middle of a protest lodged by Pirates' Manager Danny Murtaugh.

A ground ball hit by Willie McCovey in the sixth and called foul by the umpires struck Mays, who was at third base after hitting a triple. Murtaugh contended Mays should have been called out under the rules governing a runner hit by a batted ball.

"It hit him before the ball had a chance to go fair or foul," Murtaugh argued. Umpire Jocko Conlan ruled, however, that Mays was in foul territory and could not be called out for being hit by a foul ball.

Phils Win

While Mays was being hit, Philadelphia was having trouble getting hits but still nipped Los Angeles 1-0 in 11 innings. In the other NL games, Milwaukee edged Cincinnati 3-2 and St. Louis defeated Chicago 7-5. Houston at New York was postponed by rain.

Allowed to remain at third in the disputed sixth inning, Mays scored minutes later as Orlando Cepeda slammed his fifth home run. Cepeda later drove in Mays with a sacrifice fly.

Ron Herbel limited the Pirates to four hits in winning his third game in four decisions. Pittsburgh starter Vernon Law was struck by a Herbel pitch on the right elbow in the sixth and had to leave the game. Law, however, isn't expected to miss his next pitching turn.

Only Three Hits

Don Drysdale held the Phillies to three hits until Cookie Rojas opened the 11th with a double. Ron Perranoski relieved Drysdale with one out, walked Johnny Callison purposely, then got a force at second as Rojas moved to third. Rojas scored when Jim Gilliam fumbled Tony Gonzalez' grounder and threw wild to first.

Jim Bunning struck out 11 Dodgers before leaving in the 10th for a pinch hitter. The loss put the Dodgers eight games behind the league-leading Phillies.

The Cardinals stopped the Cubs' four-game winning streak and held Billy Williams hitless. Williams' league-leading average dropped 10 points to .412. Ken Boyer cracked a three-run homer for St. Louis in the third, offsetting Ron Santo's three-run blast in the eighth.

Ray Sadecki brought his record to 5-4 although he needed relief help from Roger Craig. ST. LOUIS CHICAGO

Lou Rymkus May Return To Houston

Former Coach
Assistant's Post

HOUSTON (AP) — Former Head Coach Lou Rymkus may return as an assistant coach of the Houston Oilers of the American Football League.

As far as owner Bud Adams is concerned, Rymkus can have the job of coaching the Oilers' offensive line.

Adams said the decision rests with Head Coach Sammy Baugh, who was en route to his Rotan, Tex., ranch by car Wednesday.

Baugh discussed the job with Rymkus by telephone Tuesday night and he said he was willing to hire Rymkus, providing Adams would okay it.

Rymkus' name was dropped as a possible candidate for the offensive line coach's job Monday, when Baugh was hired to replace Frank Ivy as head coach.

The Oiler office said Baugh went to Abilene to discuss the Oiler assistant job with businessman John Steber, who once coached Baugh's lines at Hardin-Simmons University and with the New York Titans. He also has been mentioned as a possible Oiler assistant.

Adams paid off Rymkus' three-year contract after the Oiler's fifth game in 1961.

An Oiler spokesman said nothing could be done until Baugh returned to Houston Saturday.

Jerry Smith Wins Stock Feature In Oshkosh

OSHKOSH—Jerry Smith nosed out Glenn Bessette, both of Appleton, in the feature stock car race at the Winnebago County Fairground track here Tuesday night.

Oshkosh's Dave Conger placed third.

Lyle Diemel, Navarino, won the semi-windup ahead of Menasha's Don Denton and Omro's Jim Brooks.

Les Gibson, Neenah; Rog Olim, Reedsville; Bob Austin, Oshkosh; and Bob Schroeder, Medina, were the heat winners.

Bessette, Jim Scovronski, Neenah, Smith and Sam Bartlein, Menasha, were the runnersup in the heat races.

Detroit Tigers Sign Prep Pitching Ace

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Mike Small, 18, left-handed pitching star from St. Anthony's High School, signed Wednesday with the Detroit Tigers for what a club official called a "very substantial" bonus.

The Tigers had scouted Small for three years, and 14 other major league baseball clubs had made offers for the 6-foot-4, 200-pound pitcher.

Small reports Thursday to Detroit's Lakeland Farm Club in the Class A Florida State League.

At St. Anthony this year he had a 6-4 record, an earned run average of 1.50 and a batting average of .571 and pitched a no-hitter.

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Milwaukee southpaw Denny Lemaster, a hard-luck hurler in his first full season with the Braves last year, appears ready to take his place among baseball's top pitchers.

The 25-year-old Lemaster boosted his record to 7-2 with his fifth straight victory as he fired a six-hitter and struck out 10 Wednesday night in a 3-2 decision over the Cincinnati Reds.

Lemaster had the Reds muttering among themselves with his blazing fast ball and a sharp breaking changeup curve. He outdueled Cincinnati right-hander Jim Maloney with the help of homers by Lee Maye and Denny Menke as the Braves snapped a four-game losing streak.

Big Difference

"The change-up curve is the big difference," Lemaster said. "The fast ball still is my pitch, but now I fool the batters with the slow curve. I worked on it all spring, but then lost my motion when the regular season started and got bombed."

Unable to keep his pitches low, Lemaster was belted in a few early starts. Since straightening out his follow through, he has been virtually unbeatable in becoming the Braves stopper.

"Those victories look good, but my earned run average still has a long way to come down because of my awful start," he said. "What is my ERA now—4.27; isn't that something? Last year I couldn't win, but had a low ERA. Now I'm winning and my ERA is way up. This can be a strange game."

Groomed as the eventual successor to Warren Spahn, Lemaster finished 1963 with an 11-14 record and a 3.04 earned run average.

Were Shut Out

"Don't forget that in seven of my losses we were shut out and I lost my last six games when we scored just six runs," Lemaster said. "This year, I'm getting a few more runs."

Spahn was one of the first to congratulate Lemaster after the victory.

"This kid isn't just a thrower any longer," Spahn said. "He's a pitcher. He throws with three speeds and has good motion. He's quick enough so the batters have to look for the fast ball.

"Then he gets them with the changing curve. The hitters are way out in front of that slow one. Yes, he's quite a pitcher—and he's going to get better."

Menke provided the decisive run with his fifth homer—a line shot into the bleachers on a 3-0 pitch by Maloney in the seventh inning.

Bass Fishing Outlook Rated Excellent

MADISON (AP)—The Wisconsin Conservation Department has forecast excellent prospects for the opening of the bass fishing season in northern Wisconsin Saturday.

The department said Wednesday the bass prospects were good in Ashland, Bayfield, Burnett, Florence, Oconto and Sawyer counties, where many of the fish are now in shallow water.

The season opening is for that part of the state north of Highway 64. The season opened in the remainder of the state May 9.

The department said the season's best fishing still is in the future, because of the cool weather of the last week. But despite the lull, the Memorial Day holiday turned up some good catches, including a 51-pound catfish near Boscobel on the Wisconsin River and 45-pound and 35-pound muskies in Sawyer County.

Musky action was best in Douglas, Eau Claire and Sawyer counties. Panfishing was called good to excellent in 50 of the state's 72 counties and trout were reported hitting in 25 counties.

Menke, given the green light on a 3-0 pitch, drilled his fifth homer into the bleachers in left for the decisive run in the seventh as Lemaster boosted his record to 7-2 with his fifth straight victory. Maloney was saddled with his sixth loss in nine decisions.

The Braves sent right-hander

Tony Cloninger, owner of a 3-4 record, against the Reds' Jim O'Toole in the windup of the three-game series today. O'Toole, a former University of Wisconsin southpaw, had a 3-3 mark.

led the Oshkosh attack with 2 hits.

Peterson had a no-hitter going until Clement Hugenroth singled to deep short to lead off the fifth. He got another hit to lead off the seventh and Bell singled in the infield with 2 out in the seventh.

Squeezed Home

Oshkosh scored in the second as John Parker squeezed Dave Raddatz home after 2 errors and a steal had put Raddatz on third.

With 2 outs in the third, Hal Malorny was safe on an error and stole second and scored on Greg Wood's single. Wood then stole second and scored on an error on Raddatz's grounder. Raddatz then stole second and scored on Madden's single.

Oshkosh threatened again in the sixth when Raddatz and Madden led off the inning with singles but Raddatz was out at the plate when Parker missed an attempted squeeze bunt and the threat ended.

Wolman Puts 50-Cent Tag On Stadium

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Jerry Wolman, owner of the Philadelphia Eagles pro football club and new landlord of Connie Mack Stadium in which the Philadelphia Phillies play, offered Wednesday to sell the stadium to the city for 50 cents.

The city has been involved in negotiations for the construction of a new stadium. It will be constructed on stilts above Pennsylvania Railroad tracks in West Philadelphia.

Wolman, who purchased Connie Mack Stadium for $757,500, offered it to the city, suggesting it could be modernized and expanded or torn down to make way for a new stadium.

Mayor James H.J. Tate said Wolman's suggestion would be reviewed by city experts.

"But we are pretty much committed to the 30th Street station site," he added, "and it's difficult at this late hour to back out."

Badaers Seeded Third in 2-Day Crew Competition

NEW YORK (AP)—The University of Wisconsin has been seeded third for the two-day Intercollegiate Rowing Association Championships on Onondago Lake at Syracuse on June 19-20.

Because of the Olympic competition ahead, the crews will race over the Olympic distance of 2,000 meters—about a mile and a quarter—with heats on Friday and finals on Saturday. In past years they rowed once over a three-mile course.

In seedings announced Wednesday, defending champion Cornell was listed first and California second.

The draw for the varsity heats has Brown, Washington, Wisconsin and Princeton in the third, Pennsylvania, Syracuse, Cornell, Navy and Columbia in the first, and Rutgers, MIT, California, Dartmouth and Georgetown in the second.

Wisconsin also had freshman and junior varsity boats entered.

Indians' McDowell May be Back in Majors to Stay

CLEVELAND (AP)—With two victories and a 14-strikeout performance under his belt, bonus baby Sam McDowell looks as though he is back in the majors to stay this time.

The 21-year-old southpaw, who signed with the Cleveland Indians for a reported $100,000 when he got out of high school in Pittsburgh four years ago, couldn't stick with the Indians in 1962 or 1963. He had a 3-5 record in 14 appearances last season before being sent to the minors.

Bothered by a sore shoulder, he made a poor showing in spring training this year, so he was sent to the minors again. But he wouldn't stay.

McDowell won eight straight he struck out the side in three innings—the first, second and fourth—although he gave up a total of nine hits.

Sam admitted he was plagued by some of the wildness that has bothered him in the past. "Not too far off the plate but enough to keep in trouble," he added.

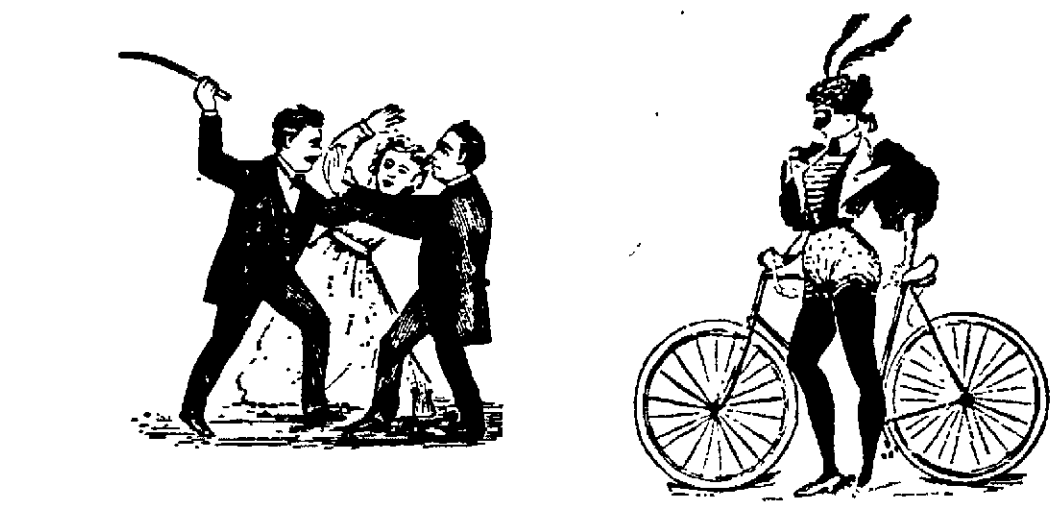

Through the early part of the game, he said, "I threw a lot of fast balls. Then about the middle innings, when I figured they'd be looking for my hummer I changed to the curve."

The 14 strikeouts was not McDowell's best performance. He once struck out 15 against Washington.

Sam figures he had at least two things going for him Tuesday night. A miniature horse shoe given him by a Portland fan at the beginning of the season hung in the back of his locker.

Funeral Rites Held for Racer Eddie Sachs

BETHLEHEM, Pa. (AP) — Veteran race driver Eddie Sachs, killed in the Indianapolis 500 last Saturday, was buried Wednesday in Holy Saviour Cemetery here after a requiem Mass at St. Simon and Jude Church.

The Rev. Frederick Melley conducted the services in Sachs' native town. Sachs was 37.

Some 150 persons attended the Mass. An estimated 1,000 filed past the bier at the Downing Funeral Home Tuesday night.

Four rooms were filled with flowers. At the head of the casket was a floral spray from Mrs. Sherry MacDonald, widow of Dave MacDonald, killed in the same accident with Sachs.

Dressen Passes Out Copies of His Rules

No Player Has Complained Before, Manager States

BY BERNIE KENNEDY
DETROIT (AP) — Manager Charlie Dressen of the Detroit Tigers moved to end the numerous questions about his alleged "strict rules" for players by printing copies of the rules Tuesday night.

Dressen passed out the sheets, which contained 14 rules, to each sports writer after Tuesday night's scheduled game between the Tigers and Washington Senators was postponed.

As he gave out the copies, Dressen said, "Take a look at them and tell me if they're too hard. They are the same rules I've had my players stick to since I started managing. And that includes the championship teams."

Attack by Lary
The question of Dressen's alleged strict rules started with an attack on the Detroit manager by former Tigers' pitcher Frank Lary, now with the New York Mets.

Rule No. 1 states that "all players must be in bed at a given time—this will be announced after each game."

Dressen explained that the time varies from city to city, "but I never ask the players to hurry, I give them plenty of time," Dressen added.

A ban against excessive drinking and the playing of golf days when games are scheduled are two other rules on the list.

Times when the players are expected to be in uniform in the clubhouse are included in two other rules, while another states that pitchers who have been knocked out of a game must wait until the relief pitcher reaches the mound and must remain in the clubhouse or on the bench until the game is over.

Players must also accompany the team in transportation furnished by the team, unless special permission is given by Dressen.

Wear Coats, Ties

Other Dressen edicts direct players to wear coats and ties on road trips and "players must conduct themselves like professional ball players at all times."

Horseplay on the bench or in the bullpen when the game is in progress also is taboo.

Probably the most important rules to Dressen, though they are listed at the bottom of the sheet, are that the players will respect the coaches' authority at all times and that what is said in the clubhouse stays there.

"No individual record is more important than our winning a ball game," states another Dressen rule. This one comes just before the final restriction, which states simply that the rules apply to every member of the club.

"Sure I've had fellows break these rules," Dressen confessed. "Especially when it comes to curfew. Those who broke it more than once were fined."

Dressen later remarked that no player had ever come up to him and said his rules were "too tough."

In New York, Lary charged that his former manager "is more strict than any other manager I've played for and I think it's hard for a club to win if they're not relaxed."

"I hope this will stop some of the questions," Dressen said. "I think these rules are simple, and I can't think of any reason why any player should have difficulty in sticking to them."

USC Joins Gophers in College Series

Minnesota Opens Against Texas A & M; USC Duels Ole Miss

OMAHA (AP) — Two powerhouse intercollegiate baseball—Minnesota and Southern California—are back in the college world series of 1964.

USC, four-time winner and defending champion, clipped Oregon 5-0 and 9-3 in the District 8 playoffs to earn its ticket to the NCAA finals in Omaha June 8-12. These wins gave USC 21 victories in the last 22 games.

Minnesota, winner in 1956 and 1960, the only times the Gophers ever made it to the college series, defeated Kent State 7-4 and 13-2 for the District 4 title. This gave Minnesota a 27-11 mark compared with California's 35-9 total for the season.

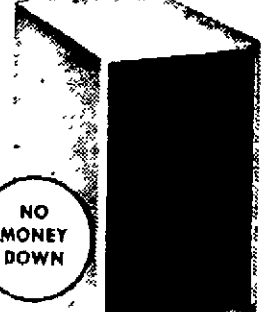

Minnesota meets Texas A&M, 19-6-1, in the second game of the series at 3 p.m., EST, Monday. USC is paired with Mississippi.

Derby Queen Selection Next Week

Contestants in the Fox Cities Soap Box Derby have been asked, as in previous years, to nominate their candidates for derby queen. Judging will take place next week.

Last year 97 Fox Cities girls, between the ages of 11 and 15, were nominated and 74 of them submitted entries. The 1963 queen was Paula Pierre, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Rouman. 518 E. Lindbergh St., Appleton.

The queen, who will receive a $50 savings bond and a complete outfit for wear during June 13-14 derby activities, will be selected for scholastic standing, beauty and activities.

Derby queen chairmen are John Ayers and Ralph McHugh of the Appleton Jaycees.

Frœhlich Takes Out Nomination Papers For Assembly Post

past 15 years in Antigo, where he was employed by the Antigo Daily Journal.

He is survived by his wife, one son, three sisters and three grandchildren.

Funeral services will be at 11 a.m. Saturday in the Wichmann Funeral Home. Burial will be in Riverside Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home after 3 p.m. Friday until the time of the service.

apportioned Outagamie County and gave it a third Assembly district, it placed Frœhlich's 1036 W. Grant Street residence in the urban rural Third District. Frœhlich immediately announced he would move south of Wisconsin Avenue into the new all-Appleton First District. He moved to 421 W. Sixth Street on May 28.

Frœhlich, an attorney, is being opposed in the September GOP primary by another Appleton attorney George Greisch, Third Ward county board supervisor and former district attorney.

Psychological Factor Common in Rapid Pulse

BY JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D. (checkups, and my doctor says Dear Dr. Molner: I am a my blood pressure is O.K. Are man of 40, above average in there other cases like mine or health, but have had a heart am I an exception?
rate of 100
standing, 80 lying down after a night's rest, since I was a young man.
I first learned about this when taking a physical for the air corps in 1942. I was Dr. Molner turned down because my blood pressure was also slightly high — 150-80. I was later accepted by the army.
This rapid pulse rate apparently has had no adverse effects.
My question is will it affect my length of life, and should I adjust my daily living and physical activities to such a condition? I have fairly regular

There's nothing very unusual about your case.

There are various reasons for a rapid pulse, but the psychological factor is very common. This shows up when people are examined for insurance, or jobs—or volunteering for the air corps. The pulse (or heart rate) is very likely to speed up because of nervous stress, and the same is true of slightly elevated blood pressure.

You don't tell me what your current readings are, but it is not unusual for them to drop back toward what is really normal for you as you become accustomed to your doctor and his mannerisms, and in general aren't keyed up. It wouldn't surprise me if, after some years of going to your regular physician, you now have perfectly normal readings. His report that your blood pressure is "O.K."
would so indicate.

The fact that you did your army service without difficulty is good evidence that there was nothing seriously wrong with you then. Your regular check-ups reinforce the indications that you are healthy now.

Doctors sometimes have difficulty persuading some patients to slow down and "adjust daily living and physical activities."

Other times they have nearly as much trouble convincing patients that they have no need to slow down, and will in fact be better off if they just keep on living naturally and stop worrying. So, E. J. M., I think you are worrying needlessly.

Dear Dr. Molner: I am three months pregnant and have found out that I have pinworms.
Will this hurt my unborn baby in any way? If so would it be safe to treat them in my condition?

MRS. N. E.

The pinworms won't hurt the baby, but you should be treated anyway, to try to rid yourself (and other members of the family) of them before the baby is born.

If you don't understand how pinworms spread — and I find that many people don't — send 20 cents in coin and a stamped, self-addressed envelope to me in care of this newspaper and ask for the booklet, "Pin-worm, the Commonest Pest."
Until you understand how they spread and multiply, you can't do an intelligent job of protecting yourself and family against getting them again.

Dear Dr. Molner: Is it healthy to keep small plants in the living room and kitchen windows, or, as a friend of ours claims, do they take our oxygen away and affect our health?

MRS. D. C.

Such oxygen as may be used is so slight that you needn't worry. Some people have a cat.
Some have a dog. Some have children. Some have relatives living with them. Some have visitors. Any one uses a lot of oxygen, but there's still enough for everybody. So don't worry for a minute about your plants.
If plants really robbed the atmosphere of oxygen, then forests and farms would be unhealthy places, wouldn't they?

No Direct Reaction Is Shown

BY FRANK CORMIER
WASHINGTON (AP)—The victory of Sen. Barry Goldwater in California's Republican presidential primary seems to have pleased at least one Democrat—President Johnson.

The chief executive hasn't reacted directly to Goldwater's narrow win over Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York. However, a couple of straws in the wind, as it were, seemed to point up the response in the administration camp.

1. Johnson aides, who normally mirror the President's attitudes, declined today to reject suggestions that Goldwater's triumph was pleasing to them. Quite the contrary, they beamed.

Indirect Swipe
2. The President himself took another indirect swipe at Goldwater—something he obviously delights in doing—in a speech Wednesday at New London, Conn. Many observers saw this as further evidence that Johnson would relish an autumn encounter with the Arizona senator.

Before he was assassinated, President John F. Kennedy left little doubt that he wanted Goldwater as his 1964 opponent. He obviously felt he could fare best campaigning against someone who could be counted on to offer voters a sharp alternative to Kennedy policies.

Johnson lieutenants, in private conversations, seemed to leave little or no doubt that the new President, too, would delight in campaigning against Goldwater. And perhaps the most convincing evidence of this can be found in Johnson's own public remarks.

Said Little
During the past six months, Johnson has said little or nothing that has been critical, even directly, of such potential Republican opponents as Rockefeller, Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania, Henry Cabot Lodge or Gov. George Romney of Michigan.

In fact, the President has heaped praise on Lodge, the U.S. ambassador in Saigon.

Two Republicans have been placed by Johnson in a somewhat different category. They are Richard M. Nixon, the former vice president, and Goldwater.

In itself, this suggests that Johnson considers Goldwater and Nixon the most promising targets.

Varied Strength
In New London Wednesday, Johnson said the United States

Long Fingernails Just Hinder a Stenographer

The poorest stenographers in the office usually have the longest fingernails. No girl has the energy and power of attention to do her work well and still take proper care of mandarin-length fingernails.

Children bring so much home-work home now that a parent can't help wonder what they possibly do during the day at school, where they supposedly go to learn.

Fat patients thrive better under the care of fat doctors; thin doctors only hurt their morale.

New Members For House Rules Group

Democrats Likely To Keep Control Of Committee

WASHINGTON (AP)—The powerful House Rules Committee likely will remain under the tenuous control of administration Democrats in 1965 although it will have two or three new members.

One of the present 10 Democratic seats and probably two of the five Republican seats will be vacant when the new Congress convenes in January, assuming continued Democratic control of the House.

The Democratic vacancy will be the seat of Rep. Carl Elliott of Alabama, who was defeated for renomination in Tuesday's primary. One Republican, Elmer J. Hoffman of Illinois, is running for a state office and another, William H. Avery of Kansas, is running for governor but still could change his mind and seek re-election to the House.

Remaining Members
All the remaining 12 members come from districts considered "safe" for re-election.

Avery and Hoffman, along with the other three Republicans, generally have teamed up in the past with two Democrats, Chairman Howard W. Smith of Virginia and William M. Colmer of Mississippi, to form a conservative minority.

Rep. John B. Anderson, R-Ill., reportedly has the inside track to replace Hoffman. No one has been prominently mentioned to take Avery's place.

Replacing Elliott may pose quite a problem since the Alabama seat normally would belong to the South. Not many liberal Southerners acceptable to the Democratic leadership are available or willing to take the political risk involved in House Rules Committee membership.

Rep. Pepper
Most prominently mentioned is Rep. Claude Pepper of Florida, an avowed liberal who voted for the civil rights bill and who comes from a liberal district. Although a House freshman, Pepper has served in the Senate.

Elliott's colleagues expect him to be offered a good federal position when he leaves Congress. His controlling vote in the House Rules Committee will be needed during the remaining months of the present session.

Last Phase Of Battle Is Imminent

WASHINGTON (AP)—The final phase of the race for the Republican presidential nomination gets under way Friday amid indications that Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona is only a whisker away from a first-ballot victory.

Washington state Republicans open their convention and delegates to the GOP National Convention will be chosen in two Colorado districts Friday.

By Saturday night some 65 delegates will be chosen in Washington, Colorado, Alabama and Hawaii, and political observers will be better able to gauge the impact of Goldwater's victory in Tuesday's California primary.

86 Delegates
That victory gave him 86 delegates from the Golden State, boosting his first ballot strength in The Associated Press survey of delegates already chosen to 446. That contrasted with a claim of 454 by Goldwater's headquarters.

A spot check Wednesday of political leaders in most of the 15 states and Puerto Rico, where a total of 258 delegates remain to be chosen, showed Goldwater is expected to win between 140 and 190. And another 25 or so of these unchosen delegates could wind up in the senator's corner before the GOP convention opens July 13 in San Francisco.

If he fulfills these estimates, Goldwater would march into the convention with from 625 to 650 first-ballot votes, just shy of the 655 needed for the nomination.

Goldwater Backers
Goldwater backers who are predicting a first-ballot nomination are looking closely at the big bloc of nominally uncommitted or favorite-son votes, including 58 in Ohio, 48 in Michigan, 31 in New Jersey and 30 in Wisconsin.

They feel there is Goldwater support in those delegations which can be called on either during or at the end of the first roll call.

The AP survey of 1,050 delegates already chosen shows this first-ballot lineup based on pledges, primary commitments, instructions and stated preference:

Goldwater	446
Nelson A. Rockefeller	117
William W. Scranton	72
Henry Cabot Lodge	44
Margaret Chase Smith	15
Richard M. Nixon	13
Favorite sons	103
Uncommitted	240

Child, 4, Drives The Family Car

EVANSVILLE, Ind. (AP)—Patrolman Charles Henderson thought the police dispatcher was pulling his leg Wednesday night when told to investigate a 4-year-old girl driving a station wagon on the near East Side.

Henderson replied, "Are you sure she is 4," and the dispatcher answered "yes."

Flores Scales, Evansville juvenile officer, heard the same report and decided, "This I have to see."

Arriving on the scene, the two officers watched as the blonde tot about three feet tall completed a turn at an intersection and stopped in front of a house. "She did a good job," Scales said. "I've never seen anything like it before."

The child was accompanied by her father and several other persons. All were laughing. The father told Scales his daughter drives all the time on the farm.

The officers didn't take any names or issue a summons, but Scales warned the father to limit the girl's driving to the farm. "She can't do it on city streets," he said.

Quadruplets Born Tuesday, Die Suddenly

NEW YORK (AP)—The Peloro quadruplets, born prematurely on Tuesday, are dead.

The boy died shortly before noon, Wednesday, the three girls late Wednesday night within 40 minutes.

Authorities at Long Island Jewish Hospital, Queens, said the boy and one of the girls had respiratory troubles and the other two "died quite suddenly." No cause was given.

The quads were born to Mrs. Salvatore Peloro, 30, of Brooklyn, who was reported doing fine. Peloro, 35, a plumber who has been out of work since November, had an offer of a job at a housing project.

Illinois May Have An Eisenhower, Stevenson Battle

CHICAGO (AP)—Another Eisenhower-Stevenson election battle may be slated in Illinois, with the candidate dates this time the former President's 15 brother and the 13 United Nations ambassador's son.

James A. Roman, state Democratic chairman, said

Wednesday that Adlai E. Stevenson III, a Chicago lawyer, is among those who have been mentioned as a possible Democratic candidate in the at-large November election for the Illinois House.

Ronan stressed, however, that no official commitment has been made.

Earl D. Eisenhower, brother of the former President, already has been named to the Republican slate.

Stevenson, 33, is the son of the former Democratic presidential candidate defeated by Dwight D. Eisenhower in 1952 and 1956. The younger Stevenson indicated he is available.

"It would be a good opportunity for public service," he said.

Stevenson, 66, of west suburban La Grange Park, gave up his job as public relations director for a chain of suburban newspapers to run for office because he said he thought his candidacy "would help the whole party."

The Republican slate has several other so-called blue ribbon candidates. Ronan said the Democratic party, also is looking for "name" candidates for its slate of 118.

If Stevenson were to be selected for the Democratic slate, there would be no direct vote between him and Eisenhower.

New Proposal Expands Powers of Governor

Law Would Allow Appointments Without Approval of Senators

MADISON (AP)—A move to expand the powers of the governor to make appointments without the approval of the Senate was approved Wednesday by the Judiciary Committee of the Legislative Council.

The committee, dominated by Republicans, who also hold majorities in both houses of the Legislature, backed changes to remove the requirement of Senate confirmation for 53 positions on 10 policy making and examining boards.

Another Test
The clash of the Republican majorities and Democratic Gov. John W. Reynolds has already produced one Supreme Court test, and the governor says he plans to file another next week.

The changes seek to reduce the number of appointments requiring Senate actions, but the committee also seeks to require that remaining appointments be made promptly and that the Senate then move quickly to reject or confirm them.

Major bodies involved would be the Tax Appeal Board, the Exposition Department, and the Crime Laboratory Board.

Others are the Surplus Property Development Commission, Trunkline Commission, State Commission on Aging, Mental Health Advisory Board, Basic Science Chiropractic Board and Nursing Board.

Consider Amendment For Prayer in Schools

WASHINGTON (AP)—Efforts were under way today to write a compromise amendment permitting prayers in the public schools less sweeping than the major one now being proposed.

The effort is being undertaken by proponents of the original measure, who now feel there is little chance for winning approval of it in the House Judiciary Committee.

The committee completed six weeks of hearings on all proposed amendments Wednesday and will get down to deciding what action to take in two or three weeks.

New Wisconsin Cookbook Published for June Dairy Month

for June Dairy Month

BY LILLIAN MACKESY
Post-Crescent Food Editor

Every once in a while an unusual cookbook comes this way . . . one worth shouting about. The 6-by-8-inch new one published by the Wisconsin Department of Agriculture is just such a cookbook. Its size is not only handy to use with its plastic comb binding, but its contents are impressive. Instead of being a seasonal "show" book, this cookbook that salutes Wisconsin as America's Dairyland in a World's Fair issue is full of year-round recipes from appetizers through its Vegetables and Sauces section in 64 attractive pages. The book is full of color and made to lie flat at any given page or stand upright on work counter or table. The cover, in beautiful color, has been lacquered for durability and may be cleaned easily with a dampened cloth.

Designed for the average homemaker, "Favorite Recipes" contains directions for Christmas cookies, holiday fruit cake, Hot Cross Buns, cheese dishes and breads, cherry dishes from pies to strudels, nationality dishes that are a part of Wisconsin culture.

There are hearty country dishes such as Old Fashioned Chicken Pie or Roast Wisconsin Turkey which have brought culinary fame to many a state housewife with an "excellent table." There are Nippy Cheese Logs . . . Curried Deviled Eggs among the appetizers. The beverage section includes Brown Cow, Pink Peppermint Posy featuring ice cream and Tomato Buttermilk Pick-Up.

No cook fond of breadmaking will be able to resist the section on breads. The recipes here are for Fruited Tea Bread . . . Crumb Topped Coffee Cake . . . Brown Sugar Nut Loaf . . . Date Cheese Bread . . . Banana Doughnuts . . . Sour Cream Biscuits . . . Apple Waffles and many other favorites.

And so the recipes go . . . page by page . . . through cakes, cookies and frostings . . . cheese and egg dishes . . . confections . . . a section on desserts and sauces that range from Rice Pudding to Spiced Whipped cream . . . an unusual collection of meat, poultry and fish recipes . . . pies and pastries . . . salads and dressings . . . soups . . . sandwiches and fillings . . . sauces . . . right down to a well organized index and a useful chart on various Wisconsin cheeses and their uses.

The recipes by count are 140, but with suggested variations they represent even more. Easy to follow, every recipe has been kitchen tested. Actually, these recipes are contributions from Wisconsin cooks and each food has been chosen with an eye to nutrition and interesting menu planning.

As the Foreword to the cookbook points out, Wisconsin has earned its title of "America's Dairyland." From a statistical viewpoint Wisconsin cattle produce more milk than any other state in the union . . . we are No. 1 in the production of evaporated milk . . . we produce about one-half of the nation's cheese . . . Wisconsin is one of the leading states in butter, powdered milk and other dairy products. Add to these Wisconsin's egg production and the pro-

For Dessert Nothing Quite Equals Cherry Pie made with luscious red cherries. For an extra-special treat, top each serving with a dollop of whipped cream or a big scoop of ice cream.

Cottage Cheese Ring Filled With Golden Salad Medley is the perfect combination of delicate cottage cheese and flavor-packed vegetables. Serve this salad for family suppers or as the main dish for a bridge luncheon. It is light yet satisfying, just the thing for hot summer days, yet substantial enough to serve in cool weather.

Planning a Party for the Small Fry? Why not make it a circus party and delight them with a Circus Party Cake? The tender, light cake is frosted with Caramel Frosting. Easy-to-make decorations consist of animal crackers with spots and stripes of melted chocolate, and colored cocktail picks for circus poles. A cardboard ringmaster presides over the performance.

Four Recipe Contests On Salads

This year's June Dairy Month Recipe competition will be on salads and midnight Friday marks the deadline for the first of a series of four contests in Outagamie County.

Miss Judith Stellwagen, county home economics agent, is in charge of the 1964 series. This year, four contests will be held in both a senior and junior division with a weekly winner for each age group.

The contests are open to any resident of Outagamie County and any entrant under 18 years of age will be in the junior division. All other contestants will be in the senior division.

Two winners, one from each division, will be picked for each week in June by three judges. The judges are home economists Miss Louise Fellows of the Wisconsin Gas Company, Kaukauna, and Miss Mary O'Leary, director of the home arts department at Appleton High School, and Mrs. Lillian Mackesy, Post-Crescent food editor.

Each of the double weekly winners will receive a cash prize and become eligible for the county demonstration contest in July. Judges for the county event have not been picked as yet.

The winner of the July contest will represent Outagamie County in the television cook-off dress and age. The entries will be announced that proceeds at Green Bay.

Entries for each weekly contest must be postmarked on or before June 4, 1964.

Riverview's Memorial Day Includes Children's Parade

The Children Were Treated to entertainment at the annual Memorial Day party at Riverview Country Club. Laughing heartily, above, at the antics of the juggler, John Boettcher, is David Callaway, the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Callaway.

Children were introduced to the tradition of Memorial Day Saturday at Riverview Country Club. American flags with their 50 stars shining brightly were put in the hands of each parader. They all donned hats and joined in the annual Memorial Day festivities. Dinner was served at 5 p.m. and the parade took place at 6:30 p.m.

Serving as general chairmen were Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Callaway. They were assisted by co-chairmen, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Werner.

The committee was composed of Mr. and Mrs. James Grist, Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Luther, Mr. and Mrs. Donald MacDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McKenzie, Mr. and Mrs. Harwood Orbison, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wulgart and Mr. and Mrs. William Shockley Jr.

Don Bosco Activities Set

The Don Bosco Guild of St. Joseph Catholic Church has scheduled a roller skating party for its first activity of June. The group will meet at St. Joseph School at 7 p.m. Saturday for a skating party at the Fox Valley Roller Rink. A business meeting, with officer installation, will be held at 8 p.m. Wednesday in the St. Joseph School Cafeteria. Bowling alleys at 41 Bowl have been reserved for 9 p.m. June 12. The organization will meet at 6:30 p.m. June 18 to attend stock car races at the Outagamie County Speedway. Members of the Guild will see the Foxes play Cedar Rapids at 8 p.m. June 21 at Goodland Field. Volley ball is scheduled at the St. Joseph gym at 7:30 p.m. June 24.

Sheinwold Hastiness Can Cause Hot Time

If you want to work up a good sweat, take up golf or tennis. You can't get the same effect by slapping the cards down swiftly at the bridge table, so you might just as well take enough time to think.

West opened the queen of hearts and continued the suit until South ruffed. Declarer led out the ace and king of spades with great rapidity, but this did not produce any perspiration. That came later.

When the clubs failed to break South stopped to mop his brow. The room had suddenly become too warm. South had already lost two hearts, and he still had to lose a club and a trump.

"Very unlucky," South complained. "With any reasonable break in clubs, it would have been a laydown."

Deserved His Fate
It was true that the club break was unlucky, but South deserved his fate. He had misplayed the trumps.

It was reasonable to lead out one high trump from the South hand, but not a second. After taking one round of trumps, South should lead a diamond to dummy and return the jack of spades through East.

The idea is to cover if East produces the queen of spades, but to let the jack of spades ride otherwise. This play cannot lose and may gain.

As the cards lie, declarer would avoid the loss of a spade trick. If East had started with Q-10-x-x of spades, the play would limit the trump loss to one trick instead of two.

South could not avoid the loss of a trump trick when he led out the ace and king. Even if he captured the doubleton queen, the other opponent would still have a trump trick with his 10-x-x of spades.

Daily Question
Partner opens with one heart, and the next player passes. You hold: S J 2 H K 8 5 D A 10 9 5 C A 7 4 2. What do you say?

Answer: Bid two clubs or two diamonds. You intend to raise hearts later, thus showing a hand too good for a simple raise but not good enough for an immediate jump to three hearts.

Attractive Cookbook of Favorite State Recipes Launches Dairy Month

CHERRY PIE

2 cans (1 lb. each) water packed red tart Wisconsin cherries
 1/2 cup sugar
 2 1/2 tablespoons cornstarch
 1 tablespoon Wisconsin butter
 1 teaspoon cinnamon
 1/4 teaspoon almond extract
 1 Baked 9-inch Pastry Shell
 Whipped Wisconsin heavy cream

Drain juice from cherries; measure one cup juice. Combine sugar and cornstarch in a saucepan. Stir in the juice; cook and stir until mixture is thickened and clear. Stir in cherries, butter, cinnamon and almond extract; cool mixture. Pour the cherry mixture into the baked pie shell. Garnish pie with whipped cream and if desired, top with baked, pastry decorations.

CIRCUS PARTY CAKE

2 cups sifted cake flour
 2 1/4 teaspoons baking powder
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1/4 cup Wisconsin butter
 1/4 cup shortening
 1 cup sugar
 2 Wisconsin eggs, well beaten
 1 teaspoon vanilla
 1/4 cup Wisconsin milk
 1 recipe Caramel Frosting
 Animal crackers decorated with melted chocolate, colored cocktail picks, green sugar

Set oven for moderate, 350 degrees. Butter two round 8-inch layer cake pans. Line bottoms of pans with waxed paper. Sift together first three ingredients, set aside. Cream butter and shortening. Add and beat in sugar; beat until well blended. Beat in eggs and vanilla. Add sifted dry ingredients alternately with milk, a little at a time, stirring only until smooth after each addition. Turn batter into pans and bake 25 minutes or until golden. Cool slightly in pan on a rack. Remove from pan; cool. Fill and frost with Caramel Frosting. Decorate with animal crackers, cocktail picks and green sugar, as shown. Place a ring master in center of cake.

CARAMEL FROSTING

1/2 cup Wisconsin butter, melted
 1 cup firmly packed brown sugar
 1/4 teaspoon salt
 5 tablespoons Wisconsin milk
 2 1/2 cups sifted confectioners sugar
 2 1/2 teaspoons vanilla

Combine first four ingredients in a saucepan. Cook and stir until mixture comes to a boil; remove from heat. Add confectioners sugar gradually; beat until mixture is of good spreading consistency. Beat in vanilla. Recipe makes two cups frosting.

COTTAGE CHEESE RING

2 envelopes unflavored gelatin
 1/2 cup cold water
 1 1/2 cups Wisconsin cottage cheese
 1 cup mayonnaise
 2 tablespoons chopped parsley
 2 tablespoons minced pimiento
 2 tablespoons chopped onion
 1 tablespoon lemon juice
 1/2 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
 Dash Tabasco sauce
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1/4 cup Wisconsin heavy cream whipped
 Crisp salad greens
 Golden Salad Medley

Beat with rotary egg beater. Pour over vegetables; toss to mix. Chill. Fill Cottage Cheese Ring or serve as vegetable salad on crisp lettuce.

Mrs. Langer Marriage Promises Exchanged

WAUPACA — Nuptial vows were exchanged at 11 a.m. Saturday at St. Mary Magdalene Catholic Church by Miss Ruth Miller and Richard H. Langer.

The Rev. Michael Wasniewski officiated at the double ring wedding of the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon C. Miller, route 1, Waupaca, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Langer, route 1, Watertown.

Miss Jeri Ryan, Oshkosh, served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Mary Langer and Miss Carol Langer.

Lawrence Gregor acted as best man. Groomsmen were Robert Langer and LaVerne Langer. Ushering duties were fulfilled by Robert Miller and James Pucci.

A reception took place at the home of the bride's parents.

Mrs. Langer was graduated from Wisconsin State College, Oshkosh, where she was a member of Lambda Chi sorority. She is employed as a social worker by the State Department of Public Welfare. Her husband is a student at Wisconsin State College. He is affiliated with Sigma Tau Gamma fraternity.

The newlyweds will reside in Oshkosh.

Modern Dance Classes Set At UW Center

Modern dance classes for women and girls will be held at the University of Wisconsin Fox Valley Center this summer. The noncredit classes will take place Monday evenings from June 8 to July 27.

Instructor for the classes for girls six years old and over will be Miss Karen Lautenbach. The classes will be from 7 to 8 p.m. in the Engineering - Drawing Room. Registration will be held before the first class period Monday evening. They will stress flexibility, strength and coordination. The children will learn balance and good posture through creative dance movements evolving from walking, leaping, skipping and jumping.

The women's classes will be from 7 to 8:30 p.m. in the Fine Arts Room of the Center. Miss Yvette Burs will serve as instructor. Registration will take place Monday evening before the first class period. The women will learn skills of motion, grace of action and dance which benefits posture.

Abusive Parents Need Help As Do Mistreated Children

Dear Dr. Jones: A while ago, you discussed a child who had been mistreated so often by her parents that she cringed constantly, as if she were always dodging a blow.

In your reply to the person writing about this, you suggested she try to get the parents to read some material, including one of four pamphlets, that could help them develop more constructive ways of disciplining their child.

Dr. Jones

Don't you know by now that you can't change ignorant and crazy people like that? Any parents who beat their children habitually should be put away in jail and their children should be given to homes where the adults would love them and treat them decently. MRS. T.G.

Mistreated children need help — but so do the parents who are mistreating them. Jail doesn't educate ignorance out of existence, and it doesn't treat and cure emotional illness. That's why I don't think it's advisable.

Until we have laws in each state that would make it a crime to strike a child, it won't be easy to correct abuse of any child by the parents. But let's at least help our efforts directed toward education and treatment, shall we?

Dear Dr. Jones: I have three girls, six, four, and three. The four-year-old sucks her thumb constantly, even when she's sleeping or watching TV. The only time she forgets about it is when she's very busy playing. I've tried ignoring it, hoping it would stop. But it seems to be getting worse. Lately, I've been telling her she's almost five and she's old enough to stop a baby habit like that. She does for a few minutes, but then starts it soon again.

Also, there seems to be a lot of jealousy between the two younger girls. They fight quite a bit. What can I do about both problems? MRS. O.M.

Don't nag about the thumb. It's a great comfort to her and probably helps make up for some other kind of peace and satisfaction she can't get. Eliminate the source of her dissatisfaction, and the thumb-sucking should disappear automatically.

Perhaps the tension between the sisters is the problem. Follow the suggestions in my new

The Ailing House
Two Ways to Waterproof Wood Cups

BY ROGER C. WHITMAN

Q: I recently bought a wooden pitcher and six cups. When I got them home, I discovered that they leak. They are natural wood, unpainted and untreated in any way. Is there any way I could make them waterproof without ruining the natural-wood effect?

A: To the absolutely clean wood surface apply a thin coat of good quality paste wax, rubbing the wax well into the wood. Or apply a thin coat of pure, fresh, white shellac, thinned half-and-half with denatured alcohol.

Q: Where can I obtain manuals or pamphlets or any information on concrete and masonry work (mixture proportions, etc.) wooden form construction for laying out patios, etc., retaining walls?

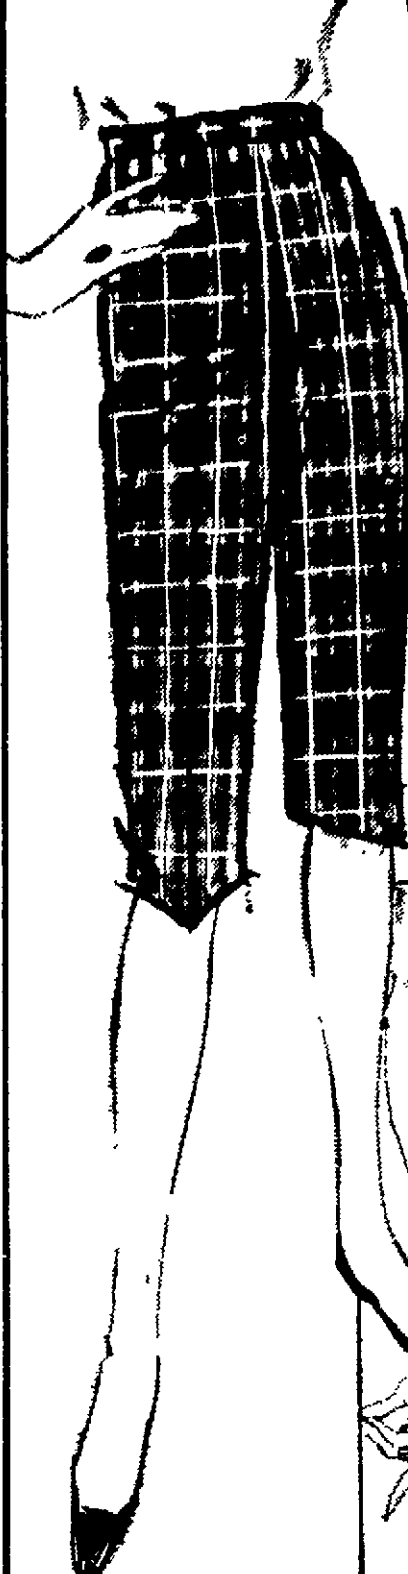

A: All types of specific instruction leaflets and information about concrete projects around the home are available on request from your local office of the Portland Cement Association, or from their headquarters at 33 W. Grand Ave., Chicago 10.

Many paperback book stores have publications on this type of project. "Use of Concrete on the Farm" available from the Superintendent of Documents, Washington, D.C. 20402, for 20 cents (no stamps) contains much of the information you want, when ordering, at same time request price list of publications of interest to home owners, listing other related pamphlets. "Concrete Work Simplified" is available for 50 cents from Directions Simplified, Inc., Briarcliff Manor, N.Y. Building supplies dealers and lumber yards, as well as masonry supplies stores, may have this type of publication available. Your local library probably has manuals on the subject.

pamphlet, "How to Prevent Jealousy and Fighting," and then write again to let me know if the thumbsucking has decreased.

For a copy of her new pamphlet, "How to Prevent Jealousy and Fighting," send 25 cents and a stamped, self-addressed envelope to Dr. Eve Jones, care of Appleton Post-Crescent.

Today's Etiquette

GIVER IS BAFFLED

Dear Louise: In January I received a birth announcement from a close friend who lives in a distant city. It was her first boy after having 4 girls. I immediately sent her a note telling her that I was mailing a gift and to please let me know when it arrived. I mailed it two days later and after laque shades and very pale yellows. The taupes look marvelous with white and soft pastel costumes. The yellows are terrific with neutral and dark clothes.

3 weeks, I put a tracer on it with the Post Office. I still haven't heard from my friend or from the Post Office. What should I do now? I am not rich and the gift wasn't a costly one. I am not looking for thanks but can't afford to send gifts without knowing if they were ever received.

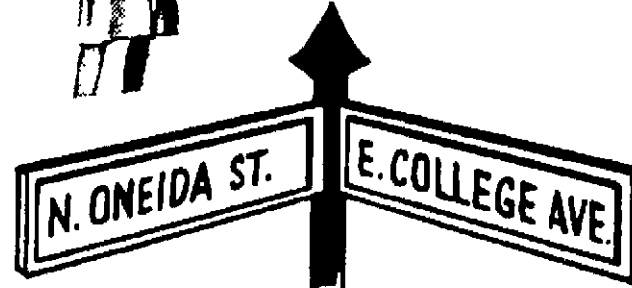

Louise Davis Answers: If the gift to your friend was insured at the time you mailed it, the Post Office should have given you a report before now. I suggest you make another inquiry. Since the mother of the baby is a close friend, you might consider a tactful letter to her stating what you have done about the tracer request but that you haven't yet had any report and therefore are concerned that she may not have received it. Ordinarily one doesn't like to write a letter like this but I think it would be all right under the circumstances, since you are such good friends. It just may be that your friend is bogged down being a new mother and busy acknowledging other gifts and she will write you before long. Let us hope she has done it by now.

Acrobatic Paper Toy Gives Table Top Flip Performance

BY CAPPY DICK

Two pieces of ordinary writing paper together. Out of a piece of heavy art paper you can make an acrobat. Fold the paper down the middle, then draw one half of the acrobat's figure, following the pattern shown in Figure 1. Make the doll about six inches tall. With scissors, cut along the outline. When you open the paper you will have a complete acrobat (Figure 2). Make three folds as shown by the dotted lines in Figure 2, one fold at the knees, another at the hips. If these folds are made properly, you will be able to place the acrobat on the table so he is resting on his knees and head with his lower legs sticking up. Place a pencil in front of the acrobat, touching his head as in Figure 3. Put your face close to him and blow on his upturned lower legs as the boy is doing. When you have learned to blow correctly, you can cause the acrobat to flip head over heels over the pencil.

Changes Mind While at Altar

MANCHESTER, England (AP) —David Swindells, 27, said "No" to the minister who was officiating at his wedding ceremony Wednesday. Blonde Diane burst into tears. The minister shepherded the weeping bride and her father into the vestry and then ran after the bridegroom. After a while the minister came back and told the guests: "There will be no wedding today." "I don't want to talk about it," said David at his home later. Diane's parents took her home. "We don't want to talk about it," said a relative.

Coast Guard Academy Is Small, but Strict

BY ANGELO NATALE

NEW LONDON, Conn. (AP)—Small but strict. That's the U.S. Coast Guard Academy, which turns out officers for what probably is the most unglorious of America's armed services.

The Coast Guard Academy, which President Johnson visits today, may not be the equal in size to West Point, Annapolis or the Air Force Academy, but it won't be outdone when it comes to discipline.

For the Coast Guard cadet, it's up at 6:10 a.m. and lights out at 10 p.m. with little time for fun and frolic between. If the prospective cadet looks forward to a softer life here than at the Army, Navy and Air Force establishments, he should not bother to apply, the Coast Guard says.

Smallest Academy

The smallest of the nation's regular military academies covers 65 acres overlooking the Thames River and has a cadet corps numbering about 600.

Many of the entering cadets don't expect strict military discipline, perhaps because the Coast Guard is—in peacetime—a division of the Treasury Department and the only one of the armed forces not under the Defense Department's jurisdiction.

They soon learn they were mistaken and a large number of the cadets return quickly to civilian ranks.

No Appointments

There are no political appointments to the academy. The potential cadet must apply to the Coast Guard, take the college entrance examination board tests, pass a rigid physical. The only way of getting into the academy is through competitive examinations.

"All we're looking for," says Capt. Charles I. Steele, commandant of cadets, only half-joking, "is the brilliant student who is a tough-fibered athlete who will develop into a leader."

And what does the academy get? More than 90 per cent of the

Goldwater Slips Out to Hideaway

WASHINGTON (AP)—In the winner's circle, Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwater left the talking to his campaign spokesmen today and slipped out of sight at an undisclosed hideaway.

Jubilant over his victory in Tuesday's California presidential primary, Goldwater's aides talked of a first-ballot victory at the Republican National Convention in San Francisco.

Goldwater stamped his approval Wednesday on a victory statement prepared by his campaign staff, inviting his beaten rival, New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, to help unite the GOP for the November election fight.

successful applicants come from the top quarter—academically—of their high school classes. Sixty per cent or better stand in the top 10 per cent. Only rarely does a successful applicant come from the lower half of his high school class.

Creates Problem

Surprisingly, the high educational caliber of the applicants is considered a problem of sorts by the academy's assistant superintendent, Capt. Frank V. Helmer. Many of the entering cadets, he says, come in with scholarships from other schools in their pockets.

"They come to the academy with the idea of seeing what it's like," Helmer says. "When they find the going tough they fall back on their scholarships. This gives us a big chunk of attrition right off."

An average of about 53 or 54 per cent of the cadets manages to survive the entire four years at the academy. The survival figure is increasing. A few years back, Helmer says, as many as 60 per cent of the entering cadets failed to complete the four rigid years.

An academy graduate has a major obligation—to serve a minimum of four years as an officer in the Coast Guard. For the most part, the academy graduates make a career of the Coast Guard, serving as officers for 20 or 30 years.

'Brigadoon' Picked by Oshkosh Junior Theater

Tryouts This Weekend for Ambitious Summer Production Set for August

BY JINGO
This coming weekend the 1964 edition of the Oshkosh Junior Theater production will get underway with try-outs for the superb musical comedy "Brigadoon," slated for the Grand Theater in August.

The youngsters of the Oshkosh company have a wonderful reputation for producing some of the very best entertainment seen during the summer months in the area. It is certain that they will hold up that reputation in the production of the delightfully fanciful show.

For those of you who might have come in late, the Oshkosh Junior Theater is a company of troupers of and by young people but for anyone who enjoys good theater.

The production and all other arrangements are handled by post-high school enthusiasts with an aplomb and efficiency that must be the envy of much older groups.

Despite the fact that the company, by the very nature of its membership, has a more or less changing make-up, the troupe is well into its second decade — an enviable record!

The schedule of musical comedies in the immediate area of the Fox Cities now is complete with the Oshkosh Brigadoon. The Attle Theater is doing the daring "Gypsy" and the Riverside Players in Neenah are doing the ambitious "My Fair Lady."

If for any weird reason any of you might want to travel out of the Fox Cities area this summer, you may be tempted to invest in the good looking Mobile Travel Guide that has gone on sale recently. The boxed set of five, fat, paperbacked books makes up an impressive display for a gift or something of the sort. The individual books, broken down into regional coverage, also are for sale individually.

The books apparently are crammed with information, but Jingo is worried for the buyers if the information in all of the areas is as skimpy and on the borderline of accuracy as it is for the Fox Cities.

Neenah-Menasha people may very well be surprised to know that the Simon Schuster publishers and editors found only two eating places in the cities — none in Neenah and that neither of the two cities' hotels is recommended!

Oshkosh fared even worse in the guide. The compilers found only one hotel in the city and only one eating place!

Appleton, the eating center of the community, has six of its fine eateries listed with five of them given "very good" ratings (two stars). While there is only one hotel listed, there are seven motels noted with three of them garnering an "excellent" (three stars) rating.

However, sightseers may be a bit disappointed. The guide lists "Replica of first hydroelectric power station, Memorial Dr. and Prospect St." That's pretty close, only about a mile out of the way; but if any of you buy this or the other guides, perhaps, it would be best to make local inquiries of your own. It could save time.

Auditions for the Attle Theater teen-age workshop-school of the theater will be conducted by Resident Director Don Jones

Top State GOP Unchanged in Goldwater View

WASHINGTON — Two top Republicans from the Wisconsin congressional delegation Wednesday adopted a non-committal attitude toward the victory of Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwater in the California Republican presidential primary.

Rep. John W. Byrnes, R-Green Bay, chairman of the House Republican Policy Committee, and himself a favorite son candidate, said that the result of the California primary had "not changed our situation in Wisconsin."

"Our delegates will meet in San Francisco and map out our course of action there," Byrnes said.

Rep. Melvin R. Laird, who is chairman of the Republican National Convention Platform Committee, said he had no comment further than the one given by Byrnes, except to say that he congratulated the winner.

Army Secretary Says 10,000 Men Deployed In South Viet Nam

WEST POINT, N.Y. (AP)—The Army currently has 10,000 men deployed in South Viet Nam, Secretary of the Army Stephen Ales said Wednesday.

This was the first time an official figure on the major element of the U.S. military manpower had been given.

Ales announced the total in an address prepared for commencement exercises at the U.S. Military Academy.

In Washington, the Pentagon said the over-all total of U.S. forces in South Viet Nam is about 15,500 — 1,000 below last fall's peak—but did not officially detail the totals for each branch of service.

Parked School Buses Cause Vision Problem

Owner of Firm Will Seek Solution on Complaints Received

COMBINED LOCKS — Problems resulting from school buses parked on village streets, the source of many complaints to trustees, was referred to the owner of the bus line for solution by the village board Tuesday night.

Buses owned by Elwood Kobussen, route 3, Kaukauna, and driven by village residents, have been left parked in front of homes or near schools when not in use. Residents complain about not being able to see around the parked vehicles and would like them moved from streets.

Parking them in driveways or behind schools is not feasible as it would be impractical for drivers to have to drive to school in private autos to pick up buses. Driveway parking prevents others from using the family car.

Complain To Owner
Kobussen suggested complaints be made directly to him, so he can find a solution without receiving second-hand complaints from board members or school officials.

Discussion was held on the progress of blacktopping and relocating intersections at Paul Court at the end of Park Street. Blacktopping will be assessed against property owners at a cost of about $3.82 per lineal foot. Changes in the intersections were made after area residents reported the existing intersection proved hazardous.

Library Sets Circus Theme

Mrs. Myron Black Conducts Kaukauna Summer Program

KAUKAUNA — "Big Top Summer Reading Club" has been selected as theme for the children's reading program at the library, according to Mrs. Myron Black, children's librarian.

Registration for the program will be from June 8 to 12. The librarian visited schools last week to acquaint youngsters with the program. Students entering third grade or above are permitted to participate. The children's department at the library has been decorated with circus characters, animals and balloons marking the event.

Book reports will be accepted beginning June 15 with hours for reports set from 10 a.m. to noon and 2 to 5 p.m. Mondays through Fridays. Eight of 10 books must be reported by Aug. 1 and Aug. 7 will be the final day for reports.

No Prizes Planned
There will be no prizes for the most books read, but members reading most books and best quality will be given recognition at an Aug. 13 circus parade and party which will climax the program. Children will dress as circus characters or animals for the party.

A required reading list is prepared for grades three and four, five and six, and seven and eight. All youngsters will be required to read at least one circus book. Younger students must read six required books and four optional volumes while intermediate and older students must read eight required books with two optional.

Return of Bridge Traffic Survey Cards Tops 50,000

State Record in Reply Numbers May be Possible

MENASHA — The return of bridge traffic survey cards in the Fox Cities climbed above the 50,000 mark today and appeared to be heading much higher and toward a record never before even approached in Wisconsin.

The count at 10 a.m. today was 54,215 cards returned in seven Fox Cities post offices.

The figure is nearly double that expected before the survey

Card Survey Costs More Than Expected

GREEN BAY — Leroy Empey, district state highway engineer, today was reported to have said his department will have to transfer several thousand dollars to the postal budget because of the unexpectedly large return in traffic survey cards given out in the Fox Cities Tuesday.

The cards, costing 7 cents each in postage, already number approximately 30,000 more in returns than was expected. Monies budgeted for postage on them were far from adequate, it was reported.

began. It will go much higher. Post offices report cards still coming in although at a slower rate.

Neenah-Menasha Totals
Neenah-Menasha mailings accounted for more than half the total this morning. A count showed 30,753 cards mailed in the Twin Cities.

A breakdown on mailings shows the following as of 10 a.m. today: Appleton, 22,662; Neenah, 16,692; Menasha, 13,561; Kaukauna, 8,000; Kimberly, 1,400; Little Chute, 1,200; and Combined Locks, 200.

The count does not include all on Aug. 10. According to pres-cards mailed. Excluded were those at substations and, in the case of Menasha, from postal boxes.

According to the rate of returns the cards mailed may reach above 60,000 and could approach 75,000.

Ask Cooperation

Residents who have not mailed cards are urged to do so by city and state officials.

Most of the mailings were made Wednesday. Neenah reported 10,692 mailed then as compared with 6,000 on Tuesday. Menasha reported 9,191 on Wednesday as compared with 4,070 Tuesday.

Menasha Public Works Director Robert Poss this morning said the return figure in the Fox Cities has never been equalled. He noted that the highest figure in any other survey in the state has been less than 20 per cent. The survey in the Fox Cities may reach well over the 50 per cent mark.

'My Fair Lady' Tryouts Set By Riverside

NEENAH — Orchestra tryouts for "My Fair Lady" will be held from 6:30 to 8 p.m., Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday in the Neenah High School auditorium.

Steve Schultz, musical director for the Riverside Players production to be presented two weekends, Aug. 20 through 23 and Aug. 27 through 30, explains, "The tryouts will be easy and take about ten minutes. Anyone trying out for piano is asked to come between 6:30 and 7 p.m."

A flute, oboe, French horn, piano, harp, string bass, percussion, clarinets, trumpets, trombones, violins, violas and cellos will make up the "My Fair Lady" orchestra.

Orchestra rehearsals will start on Aug. 10. According to present plan all rehearsals will be held at 8:30 p.m.

Appleton Acts To Reinstate Dues Checkoff

Move to Drop Plan Led Union to File Unfair Labor Plea

Appleton's city council did an about-face Wednesday and voted to reinstate union dues checkoff as requested by Teamsters Local 563.

When the council, acting on the recommendation of its personnel committee, dropped the checkoff policy in April it prompted the union to file an unfair labor practice charge with the Wisconsin Employment Relations Board (WERB).

The WERB has asked both sides for briefs and will set a hearing date soon.

"Judgment Error"

The council's change in attitude concerning the checkoff had been reflected at its previous meeting when it asked the committee to review its recommendation.

When the personnel committee met recently, it admitted "a judgment error" and recommended dues checkoff be reinstated and continued until the matter is resolved in factfinding. Because the city and union have been at odds over a 1964 contract, both have requested WERB factfinding. A hearing will be held Wednesday at city hall.

The checkoff policy, which has the city collecting monthly union dues payments through payroll deductions, was first agreed upon by the city and union in 1960. It is an accepted practice in labor-management relations.

In addition to reinstating the checkoff, the council concurred in a committee recommendation to hire a labor law attorney to represent Appleton in factfinding and future deliberations with the union.

The special counsel will be chosen from a list compiled by the committee, city attorney and mayor.

Favorable Reaction

Members of the Northeast Division of the Wisconsin Chapter of the American Institute of Architects met Monday night at Hotel Chilton. Richard Wiken, second from right, a Milwaukee sculptor, was the feature speaker. From left are Leonard Reinke, Oshkosh, president, Wisconsin Chapter; Julius Sandstedt, Oshkosh regional director north central states; Carl Boettcher, Neenah, president, northeast district; Gordon Ihbe, Green Bay, secretary; Wiken, and Sylvester Stepnoski, Fond du Lac, program chairman. Appleton Council Rejects Motion To Reverse Disposal Firm Action

Aldermen Vote in Marathon Session Not to Reconsider Previous Denial

A post - midnight maneuver appeared eager to have the council reconsider its previous denial of a proposed meeting with City Disposal Corp. representatives.

As the council neared the end of its marathon meeting, a newcomer to its ranks this spring — Ald. John Ayers (12th) — wanted aldermen to suspend rules and reconsider its action taken at the last meeting.

At that time the council defeated, 14-5, a motion to have Public Works Robert W. Bues contact City Disposal Corp. officials concerning its offer to handle garbage and trash collections for $250,000 a year on represent Appleton in factfinding and future deliberations with the union.

The special counsel will be chosen from a list compiled by the committee, city attorney and mayor.

The council's action on the dues checkoff met with favorable reaction from the union spokesman, Robert Schlieve, secretary-treasurer of Local 563. "I haven't seen the official council minutes, and we are still waiting for the dues checkoff payments," Schlieve said today.

"But I will say that if the city follows through on its latest action and shows good faith, it will have an effect in obviating our complaint before the WERB."

Ald. Al C. Fischer (15th) also have the rules suspended for a reconsideration vote.

Stoegbauer was entitled to make a motion because he voted with the prevailing side at the last council meeting.

Loses by 3 Votes
The vote to reconsider lost out by a three-vote margin and the council adjourned at 12:42 a.m.

Representatives of City Disposal Corp. have been in contact with some city officials in recent weeks, holding informal conferences but not at city hall. Whether the city sanitation division will be able to put its proposed accelerated trash pick-up into action yet this summer depends on when the council holds its committee of the whole session and takes final action.

Barth Will Get Rehearing; Says Counsel Wasn't Proper

A former Appleton man serving a five-year term in the Waupun state prison will be returned to Outagamie County Court Branch 2 for a rehearing.

The man, Clifford Barth, 40, 716 W. Elsie St., has maintained that he was not provided with counsel as an indigent. A Supreme Court split decision Tuesday upheld his motion.

Barth was sentenced by County Judge Gustave Keller to the prison on 19 counts of passing worthless checks.

Inquiry Called "Cursory"

Asst. Dist. Atty. James Baygeorge said that Barth will be returned "soon" for the hearing, but did not know when.

In the high court's majority opinion, Justice William Dieterich said nothing in the court record indicated that Barth was told that the offenses to which he pleaded guilty could subject him to the Waupun sentence.

The opinion also said the trial court's inquiry into Barth's indigency was "at best, cursory."

In a dissenting opinion in which Chief Justice George R. Currie joined, Justice E. Harold Hallows said the record showed that Barth was a convict who knew the seriousness of the offense and decided he did not want counsel.

Native of Appleton Dies In Madison

A. C. Hackworthy Was Graduate of Lawrence College

Alan C. Hackworthy, an alumnus and trustee of Lawrence College, died in his home in Madison today. He was 63.

A Madison resident since 1934 when he joined the Robert W. Baird Co. investment firm, he was born in Appleton in 1901, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Hackworthy.

After graduation from Lawrence in 1924, he joined a Chicago investment firm. Later, he worked for Marathon Corp. in Menasha before taking the Madison position. He was vice president and resident partner of the Baird Company at the time of his death.

Hackworthy was active in various Madison community services, including the Madison Community Welfare Council, the University of Wisconsin YMCA, the United Community Chest, in addition to being a member of the Madison Chamber of Commerce and the Rotary Club. He was president or director of several of these.

He was elected to the Lawrence board of trustees in May, 1961.

Council Okays Street Project After Debate

lishing an accurate description of the amount of Prospect Avenue frontage he will lose. The exact description was that the widening would take 167 feet of his land on Memorial Drive, 68 feet along Prospect, and a 35-foot easement during the construction period.

Seven persons appeared before the council during the hearing on whether to amend the map. Four registered strong objection to the project in general, claiming it would hurt property values, fail to solve the traffic bottleneck and would destroy the trees and other landscape.

One resident inquired about snow removal and another sought information as to whether the new street would meet driveway grades. Another read a letter-to-the-editor on traffic engineering.

Project Defended
Speaking for the project was Dr. D. L. Jones, Verbrick and Memorial Dr., who said it was time the traffic problem was solved and that it was needed for the good of the entire city.

"A lot of us have lost land and trees to improvements but that is one of the penalties we have to pay for progress," Dr. Burns commented. He was applauded by the audience.

It was established that the intersection widening will cost $50,000, with the state picking up 85 per cent of the expense. The city will also receive the same amount of aid for the remainder of the Memorial Drive work from the intersection to Lawrence Street.

Asked Postponement
When the condemnation resolution was up for adoption, Mares made a plea to the council to postpone action and outlined his plans for maintaining his home as a historic site for Appleton.

Construction of sewers in the Memorial Drive area will start by the end of this week or Monday, city officials said today. They could not say when bids would be taken on the reconstruction project, except that the work will be done this summer.

The properties to be condemned and offers made to the owners by the city for land, no buildings, are: Mares, $8,100; Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Shipley, 821 S. Memorial Dr., $500; Louise Sawall, 707 W. Prospect Ave., $600; and William R. Christensen, $1,500.

breaking ceremony were Sister Kathleen and R. C. Van Sistine, president of the Appleton Chamber of Commerce. H. H. Pelkey, vice chairman of the advisory board, was master of ceremonies.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. A. M. Grill, pastor of St. Mary Catholic Church and dean of the Outagamie County Deanery, blessed the ground, assisted by the Rev. Peter Schroeder, St. Elizabeth chaplain.

The building program will include a five-story wing to the south for patients' rooms and administrative offices, a two-story wing to the east for service departments and expansion of the obstetrics department, razing of the 1900 structure and construction of a wing to the north for auxiliary services and the convent, and remodeling of the present main building.

2 Guidance Unit Workers to be at State Meetings

Staff members of the Outagamie County Community Guidance Center will attend two statewide professional meetings this month.

Dr. Alan Townsend, clinical psychologist for the center, will attend the semi-annual meeting of the Wisconsin Association of Psychiatric Clinics for Children in Elkhart Lake June 12 and 13.

Eli Tash, chairman of the State of Wisconsin Mental Health Advisory Committee, will speak June 12 of "The Evolution of Psychiatric Clinics in Wisconsin." Sidney Berkowitz, executive director of Jewish Family and Community Service, Chicago, will speak June 13 on "Family Centered Casework." Miss Elizabeth Vredenburg, psychiatric social worker at the Outagamie County guidance center, will attend a symposium entitled "Community Psychiatry" in the Wisconsin Center Madison, June 18-20. The symposium is co-sponsored by the University of Wisconsin and the Wisconsin Department of Public Welfare.

Attorneys Ask Postponement Of Dahlke Trial

RENO, Nev. (AP) — Attorneys for Douglas A. Dahlke, 27, Oshkosh, have asked that his trial on a murder charge be postponed from June 15 to July 27.

Dahlke is charged in the fatal shooting Oct. 12 of his wife, Gloria Jean, 26, near Reno.

C. Clifton Young and Jerry C. Whitehead, the attorneys, also asked the court provide funds for a psychiatric examination and for them to travel to Oshkosh to question witnesses.

The defense said it should have access to all material gathered by Dist. Atty. William J. Raggio if the court denies funds for the trip to Oshkosh.

Mrs. Dahlke's body was found buried in the basement of an Oshkosh home Jan. 30. Dahlke, a former Army man, pleaded innocent to the open murder charge in February.

ed about the grasp for power by higher levels of government and the increase in taxes to support this less efficient method of operation.

Return Authority
"The only way the continued tax increase can be effectively curbed," he stated, "is by returning more authority to local government, greater efficiency in all phases of government and the elimination of unnecessary or obsolete departments."

Gillespie was born Oct. 30, 1936, on a Town of Grand Chute farm. He is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin College of Agriculture and is an engineer officer in the Army Reserve. He owns the site planning firm of John Gillespie and Associates.

In March he was appointed to Appleton's Downtown Tomorrow Committee by Mayor Clarence Mitchell. He is a member of the education committee of the Fox River Valley Regional Planning Commission, the American Society of Landscape Architects, the Association of Wisconsin Planners and the Wisconsin Park and Recreation Society.

Adult Leader
Gillespie is an adult leader of the Fox Cities "Youth for Christ," and is chairman of a 300-mile horseback ride across the state this summer for 50 high school teen-agers. He is married and has two sons, 2- and 6-years-old.

Kiwanis Club Hears Talk on Foreign Trade

British Vice Consul Stresses Importance To U. S. Merchants

The importance of and potential for international trade in the Upper Midwest was explained to members of the Appleton Downtown Kiwanis Club Wednesday by a British consulate officer.

Eugene H. Harrison, vice consul at the British consulate in Minneapolis, told the Kiwanians that the Upper Midwest was a tremendous exporter of foodstuffs to Britain, Canada and Japan. He could not give the figures for this state, but said some 76,000 Minnesota workers are concerned with foreign trade.

Harrison, a former London businessman and now concerned with the promotion of British imports and trade in a four-state area, described what the consulate service was prepared to do to help Midwestern manufacturers and retailers on the "two-way street" that is international trade.

Consulate Assistance
He said the consulate helps American businessmen in preparing trips overseas, introduces British salesmen to American retailers and helps set up American manufacturers in overseas plants in British dominions.

The consulate officer cited Kimberly-Clark Corp. as one of the major Fox Valley concerns which has located plants in the British Isles, but he said that much smaller firms could find it profitable to follow suit.

Retailers, too, find British products different and of high quality, he said. The H. C. Prange Co., he told the club, had six buyers in Britain last year.

Helble presented a "Clarion" to Miss Mary O'Leary, home-ecy teacher, and Christine Fourness, book review.

Menominee Enterprise: Hope for Final Battle

Victory by 'Poverty' Would Cause Indians to Lose Tribal Identity

BY PAUL CLIFFORD
NEOPIT, Wis. (AP)—There are traces of the feudal lord or the company store in The Menominee Enterprises, Inc., the economic base upon which the Menominee Indians have based their hope in their last battle.

If the Indians win, they will do so in a long campaign to become integrated in the white man's world.

Should they lose, defeat could mean the disbanding of the Menominees as a tribal entity and the division of former reservation lands among one or more of the adjoining counties.

When the tribe was put on the path to making its own determination with the ending of federal supervision on May 1,

Fourth of a series.

1961, and the reservation made into Menominee County, administration of all tribal business activities was turned over to the corporation. Each registered member of the tribe was given an ownership and income bond in the corporation.

Logging Operation
A logging operation and sawmill are the principal activities of the corporation and almost the sole source of employment and income in the county.

The sawmill, one of the largest in the Great Lakes states, provides 225 jobs on two shifts. The nine-month a year logging operation means work for another 90 to 100 men.

In the last year, the corporation had gross income of $3.5 million. It paid $1.3 million to its labor force, spent a half million dollars for logs and pulpwood, distributed $385,560 among the registered tribal members as interest on income bonds, and paid 94 per cent of the county's tax bill.

But some of the Menominees were not happy with the results and neither were the directors completely satisfied.

1963 Statement
The corporation said in its 1963 statement that income "was not up to expectations... but should mark the beginning of an improved earnings trend."

The reduced earnings of 1963 and the 16 months before that reflected the expenditure of more than $1 million to improve and diversify the mill. The major purchase was a $400,000 log debarker and chipper unit that produced $140,000 in new net income last year.

Arthur D. Clements, a 44-year-old former California lumberman, took over as Enterprises president early this year after nearly three years as corporation secretary-treasurer.

Saying there "has been too much criticism that the Menominees can't work or won't work," Clements added: "We are trying to prove that the Menominees can run a successful business corporation."

Among the critics of the mill operation was County Judge Kenneth Traeger, who said "a poor job was done in rebuilding the plant ... They didn't get full value for every dollar."

James Frechette, a long time leader of his people and a corporation director, said he felt the Menominees "would not have done as bad a job as outsiders" if they had been in charge.

We lost control of the board of directors. When they say spend, shutdowns of the mill had been on Sept. 1, 1962, with the Interwe spend."

Clements countered that with planned improvements completed, the 1963 expenditure for labor was 10 times the 1962 figure; that the debarker-chipper would pay for itself before 10 years, and listed a number of other improvements.

Work Force
He said a reliable work force had been developed, absenteeism was down and lost time reduced, while individual wages

Clements said the work force had been improved through a system of penalties for unexplained absences. Disciplinary actions range from suspensions to discharge. He also said there had been no instances within year recent memory of malicious damage to the mill to bring about a shutout at the peak of capacity is limited only by the liability of the forests to yield logs. A timber inventory is in progress to determine whether the goal of 30 million board feet should be changed. There is a market for all the lumber that can be cut.

Reaction Unsatisfactory
Clements said that reaction to termination has been unsatisfactory from a business plan's point of view because it was not by the corporation. Twenty-two of the leases were signed last year, and Clements said he expected the program to increase the county tax base by opening of the limited prime vacation lands remaining in the state, was hoisted at sports shows during the winter. He said the leases were written for 40 years because it was felt it would take that long for the Menominees to prove they had made a success of terminating.

Can you name the 6 reasons Martini devotees prefer the glorious Gordon's Martini?

- 1 To this day, the ancient pot still method is used in distilling Gordon's Gin.
- 2 Only gin from the heart of the run is bottled for Gordon's.
- 3 Gordon's uses only juniper berries and other choice botanicals aged to the peak of maturity.
- 4 Gordon's is extraordinarily dry.
- 5 Gordon's has a distinctively delicate flavour.
- 6 Gordon's maintains its exceptional quality because it still harks back to Alexander Gordon's original formula created in England in 1769. Reasons enough for enjoying a Glorious Gordon's Martini soon, wouldn't you say?

Pravda Hints At Cutting Ties With Peking

BY REINHOLD ENSZ
MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Communist newspaper Pravda indicated today that the Kremlin may be thinking of formally severing ties between the Communist parties of the Soviet Union and China.

"The threat of a split is a reality which the world Communist movement must reckon with," said an article in the party newspaper.

"Marxist-Leninists do not want a split, but unity cannot be attained through concessions on matters of principle, nor does it come by itself."

Would Weaken Reds

It was one of the strongest Soviet statements yet on the Moscow-Peking feud. But Western diplomats in Moscow do not believe a break in party relations would mean a break in relations between the Soviet and Chinese governments. The diplomats believe the Soviets want to keep some lines of communication open.

The article said a split between the Soviet and Chinese parties would "seriously weaken the struggle of the world Communist movement against imperialism."

The article urged convocation of a world Communist meeting and said the "majority of the Communist parties in all regions of the world is going on record for its early convocation."

Purchase Offer to Ottawa Firm Made By Appleton Wire

74.2 Per Cent Stock Sale Would Unite Buchanan Holdings

Appleton Wire Works Corp. has offered to purchase 74.2 per cent of the issued and outstanding common stock of Capital Wire Cloth Ltd. of Ottawa, Canada, it was announced today by William E. Buchanan, president.

Should the purchase materialize, it would unite two similar firms founded by members of the Buchanan family in the United States and Canada. The Ottawa concern was founded in 1912 by John Buchanan, son of one of the founders of Appleton Wire Works.

Appleton Wire Works has offered to purchase 222,500 of Capital Wire's 300,000 outstanding shares for $12.50 per share in Canadian funds. Capital's stock is listed on the Montreal Stock Exchange and was quoted early this week at $10 per share.

Directors of Capital, who control more than 51 per cent of the outstanding stock, have indicated their intent to tender their shares plus those they control for purchase and will recommend that other stockholders do likewise.

Same Lines

The Ottawa company manufactures generally the same lines of wire cloth. Fourdrinier wires and other wire products for the paper and pulp industry as does Appleton Wire Works. While Canada is its principal market, it does some export business and it recently constructed a plant for the manufacture of paper mill wire in Australia. Its three plants in Canada are at Ottawa, Westminister, British Columbia, and Perth, Ontario.

Appleton Wire Works was founded in Appleton in 1895 by William Buchanan, his son, G. E. Buchanan, and A. B. Weisenborn, who was a brother-in-law of William Buchanan, and the grandfather of Bruce Purdy, present vice president of the firm. The current president is the son of G. E. Buchanan.

John Buchanan, son of William Buchanan, joined the Appleton firm an inequity of voting power of three years later, in 1898, but left here in 1912 to found the firm at Ottawa.

Johnson Gives No Hint About Viet Nam Move

President and His Advisers Aim at Cooling Off Period

BY JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson kept tight secrecy today on what—if any—new moves he is planning to make to step up the fight against Communist forces in Southeast Asia.

A White House statement issued Wednesday night gave some indication, however, that Johnson and his advisers have decided to soft-pedal talk of drastic action such as enlarging the war in Viet Nam, at least for the time being.

Johnson received a report from Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara on the results of two days of intensive policy review which they conducted at a conference in Hawaii earlier this week.

No Word of Decisions

Several days ago officials had indicated that the conference would very likely result in presidential decisions to deal with what then appeared to be a serious crisis in Southeast Asia due to Communist advances primarily in Laos.

When Wednesday night's meeting ended, George Reedy, press secretary, issued this statement:

"The secretaries met with the President about an hour. They reviewed the situation in Southeast Asia in light of the consultation with the Joint Chiefs of Staff."

Union and Firm Agree To Confer

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Police arrested 23 pickets Wednesday during the third day of strike violence at the Pressed Steel Tank Co., in neighboring West Allis. Two police officers were injured.

Because of the growing clashes, Morris Slavney, chairman of the Wisconsin Employment Relations Board (WERB), said he arranged a meeting with company and spokesman for Local 1569 of the United Steelworkers for today. He said both sides had agreed to attend.

"We are concerned about the maintenance of peace," Slavney said. "We want to work out something on a voluntary basis. We have no power to order them to do so now."

Firm Files Complaint

The WERB received an unfair labor practices complaint from the company Wednesday. Similar to the one filed Tuesday with the National Labor Relations Board, it claims coercion by the pickets against college students who began to work in the plant Monday with the start of summer vacations.

Slavney said that under state law, a hearing cannot be held for 10 days. The local, with about 650 members, has been on strike since April 1. The major issue reportedly is the union request for a one-year agreement against the company's offer of a three-year pact.

Student Released

Also taken to the West Allis police station Wednesday was a 19-year-old Marquette University student accused by a picket of "slugging back." The youth was released.

Officials said 24 students, twice the number of the previous two days, entered the plant Wednesday. They were pushed through about 150 pickets by police in two separate charges.

There were about 50 pickets at the gates when the students dashed from the plant in the afternoon.

Sixteen pickets were arrested in the morning and seven in the afternoon. They were charged with disorderly conduct, as were the five arrested earlier.

Iowa Senator Adds Name To Backers of Proposal

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate leaders bent on passing the civil rights bill brushed aside today suggestions their chances of cutting off the debate had been hurt by the California primary or a tactical maneuver of Southern opponents.

At the same time Sen. Jack Miller, R-Iowa, removed himself from the ranks of the uncommitted and announced he will vote next Tuesday—the day set for a showdown—to put the Senate's debate-limiting cloture rule into effect.

Won't Change Course

A two-thirds majority will be required, or 67 votes if all 100 senators vote, to halt a Southern filibuster against the bill by clamping a tight limit on further debate, now in its 70th day.

Assistant Democratic Leader Hubert H. Humphrey and Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen said they have no intention of being deflected from the course set earlier in the week to wind up the debate and pass the bill.

They discounted reports that the refusal of Senate leaders to accept an offer from the Dixie contingent to vote on several amendments this week had hurt their chances of mustering the necessary margin for cloture.

Denies Cloture Affected

Humphrey and Dirksen also said the victory of Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., in California's presidential primary would have no effect on the drive to limit debate despite the loss.

There is some difference of opinion over whether Goldwater's defeat of Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller in Tuesday's California primary carried the senator over his last big hurdle toward the Republican presidential nomination.

Early Fireworks

But if Goldwater is nominated at the mid-July convention here, the fireworks probably will start exploding even before the August Democratic convention goes through the formality of nominating the President.

Referring to Goldwater's defeat of New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, Humphrey said the vote in California "hurt Rockefeller, not cloture."

But Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., leader of the Southern senators battling the civil rights bill, said he thought Goldwater's victory might cause some senators to change their minds and "vote against gag rule."

The offer of the Southern forces after a caucus two days ago to start voting on amendments marked a switch in strategy in an apparent effort to head off a limitation on debate.

Skyraiders Ordered to S. Viet Nam

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Maj. Gen. Joseph H. Moore, commander of the 2nd Air Division, said today new Skyraider fighter-bombers are being brought into South Viet Nam to step up the war against Communist Viet Cong forces and not because the planes they replace are obsolete or unsafe.

Moore said the single-seater A1H and the two-seater A1E Skyraiders are bigger, faster and heavier than the T28 fighter-bombers and B26 light bombers that have been carrying on the air operations.

"They can carry a wider variety of ordnance. They have more endurance and great flying time."

Moore denied reports the T28 and B26 were obsolete or unsafe.

Briton Backs Proposed Annual Summit Talks

LONDON (AP) — Labor party leader Harold Wilson returned today from a four-day visit to Moscow and said he thought the Western powers should support the idea of annual summit meetings.

Court Asked To Pass on County Plan

MADISON (AP) — The Wisconsin Supreme Court was urged today to take original jurisdiction in a case aimed at declaring unconstitutional the organization of 70 of the state's county boards.

The Wisconsin County Boards Association and several individual counties asked the court not to step in on grounds that representation on county boards is a matter for legislative determination.

The court will now decide whether to take the case brought against Waukesha County by two Milwaukee Sentinel executives.

At issue is the law under which county boards are organized to include chairmen of town boards, a supervisor from each city ward and a supervisor from each village in the county.

The petition by Managing Editor Harry L. Sonneborn of the Sentinel and City editor Robert H. Wills contends the present organization "creates an inequity of voting power of three years later, in 1968, but is unconstitutional under the Constitution and the Wisconsin Constitution."

"The fundamental principle of one vote for one person is at stake," said Marvin Klitzner, attorney for the two newspaper executives.

Klitzner said the court should take jurisdiction because the case involves "the core of the Democratic process." It is a clear constitutional issue with statewide application and direct action by the state's highest court would avoid a multiplicity of suits in circuit courts.

Harold J. Wollenzien, corporate counsel for Waukesha County, noted that the Legislature has set up a study committee on county government and that the court should not enter the legislative field.

"Do you think the Legislature will do anything unless the law is invalidated?" asked Chief Justice George R. Currie.

Wollenzien said he thought today that he will agree to a settlement.

"We peace talks only if Premier Souphannouvong's request that he will agree to a settlement."

The New China News Agency said the Pathet Lao leader listed these conditions for talks with the neutralist premier:

Repeal of the order assigning former officials to cabinet posts formerly held by Pathet Lao ministers and dissident neutralist ministers.

Souphannouvong's request that he arrange for the departure of the last two remaining Pathet Lao government officials and their 100-man bodyguard from Vientiane.

Souphannouvong notified Souphannouvong, who is his half-brother, that he would ask the International Control Commission to arrange to fly the Pathet Lao party to Hanoi, capital of Communist North Viet Nam, "in the shortest possible time."

Gen. Kong Le, commander of Souphannouvong's neutralist army, conferred in Vientiane today with the chief of staff of the rightwing army, Gen. Ouane Rattikone.

Changes Plea in Abduction Case

MADISON (AP) — Thomas F. Howard, 26, of the Milwaukee suburb of Hales Corners, changed his plea from innocent to guilty Wednesday to a charge of child abduction.

Howard is accused of picking up a 2-year-old Madison girl, March 30 and driving her two blocks from her home before she was released unhurt.

County Judge William Buehli continued Howard's bond at $10,000 and ordered a presentence investigation to permit the defendant to continue to receive psychiatric treatment. Buehli said he would impose sentence in two weeks.

Chauffeur Shoots Ethiopian Envoy

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP) — The Ethiopian ambassador to Sweden was shot and seriously wounded today by his Polish chauffeur, the Stockholm Criminal Police reported.

The police said Ambassador Abate Agede was hit by three revolver bullets. The shooting occurred on the embassy grounds.

A police spokesman said the chauffeur, whose name was withheld, had received orders from the ambassador which he refused to obey. During the argument, the Pole suddenly drew his revolver and fired three shots, the spokesman said.

Agede, 41, was stationed at Ethiopia's embassy in Washington and was a member of his country's U.N. delegation before coming to Stockholm in March 1963.

The chauffeur was brought to police headquarters for questioning.

BY JACK BELL
SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — If the presidential race matches Sen. Barry Goldwater against President Johnson the November election campaign will have few dull moments.

There is some difference of opinion over whether Goldwater's defeat of Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller in Tuesday's California primary carried the senator over his last big hurdle toward the Republican presidential nomination.

Early Fireworks

But if Goldwater is nominated at the mid-July convention here, the fireworks probably will start exploding even before the August Democratic convention goes through the formality of nominating the President.

Goldwater, the conservative, would strive to offer "a choice,"

not an echo," to Johnson's professed liberalism.

The senator described himself to California audiences as "the only Republican who has the ghost of a chance of beating Lyndon Johnson."

He called the California primary outcome "a victory for the great majority of Republicans across the country who share my belief that Lyndon Baines Johnson can be beaten in 1964 if we Republicans concentrate our fire on him and not on each other."

All signs indicate that Johnson would welcome Goldwater as his opponent. The President, an experienced performer on the stump might even be tempted into a television debate with Goldwater, who has been accused by critics in his own party of firing carelessly from the hip in some statements on major issues.

Because of the limitations on what a president can say publicly, Johnson has not indicated if he will debate his opponent on TV. But Johnson has shown a yen for the kind of crowd hopping and individual handshaking that Goldwater gives every sign of detesting. However, if Goldwater is the Republican nominee, he probably would have to campaign on the supermarket circuit.

In his California campaign, the senator laid out the pattern of the attack he could be expected to make on Johnson in a general election contest.

Alleges Appeasement

Among other things, Goldwater said the administration's foreign policies offered a "path to suicide," that the country faced "another Korea" in South Viet Nam and might lose all of Southeast Asia to the Communists.

Soviet Flag Flies at Festival in Spain

SAN SEBASTIAN, Spain (AP) — The Soviet Hammer and Sickle flew here today on the eve of the opening of the 12th San Sebastian film festival.

The flag, displayed here publicly for probably the first time since the Spanish civil war, appeared with those of 17 other countries with entries in the festival, which opens Friday and runs through June 14.

Festival directors said seven Russians would head a delegation of 20 from behind the Iron Curtain.

This is the first year in which a Soviet entry and delegation have been welcomed.

Typhoid May Spread In Britain, Aberdeen Health Officer Fears

ABERDEEN, Scotland (AP) — The number of cases in Aberdeen's typhoid epidemic rose to 318 today, and the city health officer warned the disease may sweep through the British Isles.

During the night, 17 more persons were admitted to hospitals, making a total of 275 confirmed cases and 43 suspected.

Today, said City Health Officer Ian MacQueen, "is the counts of theft and burglary, probable dividing line, the day of Aberdeen's destiny."

The incubation period of typhoid is about 15 days and the outbreak was discovered two weeks ago.

MacQueen has blamed the outbreak on a contaminated tin of state reformatory and Carlos imported corned beef. The government has ordered an inquiry, state prison sentence.

CIRCUS PARTY CAKE

2 cups sifted cake flour
2 1/4 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 cup Wisconsin butter
1/4 cup shortening
1 cup sugar
2 Wisconsin eggs, well beaten
1 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 cup Wisconsin milk
1 recipe Caramel Frosting
Animal crackers decorated with melted chocolate, colored cocktail picks, green sugar

Set oven for moderate, 350 degrees. Butter two round 8-inch layer cake pans. Line bottoms of pans with waxed paper.

Sift together first three ingredients, set aside. Cream butter and shortening. Add and beat in sugar; beat until well blended. Beat in eggs and vanilla. Add sifted dry ingredients alternately with milk, a little at a time, stirring only until smooth after each addition. Turn batter into pans and bake 25 minutes or until golden. Cool slightly in pan on a rack. Remove from pan; cool. Fill and frost with Caramel Frosting. Decorate with animal crackers, cocktail picks and green sugar, as shown. Place a ring master in center of cake.

CARAMEL FROSTING

1/2 cup Wisconsin butter, melted
1 cup firmly packed brown sugar
1/4 teaspoon salt
5 tablespoons Wisconsin milk
2 1/2 cups sifted confectioners' sugar
2 1/2 teaspoons vanilla

Combine first four ingredients in a saucepan. Cook and stir until mixture comes to a boil; remove from heat. Add confectioners' sugar gradually, beat until mixture is of good spreading consistency. Beat in vanilla. Recipe makes two cups frosting.

COTTAGE CHEESE RING

2 envelopes unflavored gelatin
1/2 cup cold water
1 1/2 cups Wisconsin cottage cheese
1 cup mayonnaise
2 tablespoons chopped parsley
2 tablespoons minced pimiento
2 tablespoons chopped onion
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1/2 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
Dash Tabasco sauce
1/2 teaspoon salt
3/4 cup Wisconsin heavy cream whipped
Crisp salad greens
Golden Salad Medley

Sprinkle the gelatin on cold water to soften and dissolve over boiling water. Cool gelatin slightly. Combine cheese and dressing; blend in gelatin, parsley and next six ingredients. Fold in cream.

Weyauwega Seeking New Superintendent

Applications Being Taken by Board for School District Post

WEYAUWEGA — The Weyauwega Union High School Board of Education announced Monday night it will start accepting applications immediately for superintendent of schools.

The new superintendent will replace H. James Ramsdell, who has resigned after two and one-half years at the helm of the Weyauwega school district to take a similar position with the New London Unified School District.

Ramsdell will assume his new duties at New London, July 1, but said he would continue to assist in the operation of the Weyauwega schools until a new superintendent is hired.

Ramsdell also is superintendent of the Weyauwega elementary school, but the district is in the process of consolidating to a kindergarten through grade 12 district which will put the entire district under one head.

In other business conducted at Monday's meeting, the board reviewed the 1964-65 preliminary budget and discussed purchase of a gas-fired incinerator.

Clintonville Awards Contracts for Sidewalk, Curb, Gutters, Supplies

CLINTONVILLE — Contracts for awarding by the city council Tuesday night for construction of storm and sanitary sewers, concrete sidewalks, curbs and gutters and bids were accepted for supplying bulk cement, gravel and bituminous hot mix.

Sidewalk construction bids were received from Martin Brothers, Ivan McGlin and Len Helling, all of Clintonville.

The contract went to Helling who bid 33 cents per square foot for 4-inch concrete; 41 cents for 6-inch concrete; 49 cents for 8-inch concrete; and for the removal of old sidewalks, 5 cents per square foot for 4-inch concrete, 7 cents for 6-inch concrete, and 10 cents for 8-inch concrete.

Curb and Gutter

Martin Brothers were awarded the curb and gutter construction contract on a bid of $1.90 per lineal foot for 24-inch curb and gutter, and $2.15 for 30-inch curb and gutter. Martin's bid included 60 cents per lineal foot for removing existing curb, plus $2.50 per foot for patching existing 24-inch installation and $2.75 for 30 inches.

Petition to Release VFW Club From Town Approved; $50,000 Well-Drilling Bond Authorized

NEW LONDON — A petition for annexation of the Veterans of Foreign Wars clubhouse in the Town of Hortonville to the city of New London was accepted Tuesday night by the council.

The petition went to the city clerk on March 30. It was turned over to the planning commission where it was tabled. According to law, if the planning commission takes no action within 30 days, the matter may be brought up by the council.

Clifford Huss of the VFW told the council the clubhouse has been released from the Town of Hortonville. He said the VFW wants the matter settled so that they can apply for beer and liquor licenses. The organization now has a beer license and wants to apply for a liquor license if it is annexed to the city.

Annexation is expected to be introduced at the next council meeting on June 16 for the first reading. An ordinance must be read twice before it is approved by the council.

Borrow $50,000

The council also voted for a resolution enabling the utility department to borrow $50,000 to drill a well on the end of Douglas Street and to build a pump-house with pumping equipment.

The resolution calls for repayment over a 10-year period at 3½ per cent interest. At Monday night's committee meeting, Francis Werner, representing the utility commission, said the utility expects a rate return sometime soon. This would pay off the utility's indebtedness.

Mayor Wilmer Schlafer appointed Mrs. William Frieburger and George Kopp for three-year terms on the library board. He also appointed Mrs. Grace Stern, Avolt Tohm and M. J. Stewart to the board of review. All appointments were approved by the council.

Seek Curb, Gutter

A petition for the installation of curb and gutter on Law Street from S. Pearl to Smith Streets was referred to the board of public works.

The council authorized expenses for city officials to attend two institutes sponsored by the League of Wisconsin Municipalities. One will be an attorney's institute at Baileys Harbor June 4-6 and a clerk and finance officer institute in La Crosse from June 24-26.

The council donated $300 to the New London Boys Baseball League for the coming year. Martin Fuerst, of the boys baseball club, presented a financial statement to the council.

John Gillespie Enters Race for Assembly Seat

Site Planner Is Fourth Candidate In GOP Contest

John Gillespie, 28, a Town of Grand Chute professional site planning consultant, today became the fourth announced Republican candidate for Outagamie County's new Third District Assembly seat.

Gillespie, who lives at 4801 N. Ballard Road in the Apple Creek area, will face Ervin (Butch) Conrad, Bovina town chairman and county board supervisor; Patrick Mares, supervisor from Appleton's 19th Ward, and Richard E. Warnke, a student at Northwest College, Watertown, in the September GOP primary election.

So far there are no announced Democratic Party candidates for the new Assembly post.

District Boundaries — The third District includes five northside Appleton wards and the western half of Outagamie County.

"With my background and training," Gillespie said, "I feel well qualified to represent both the urban and rural areas of the district."

Gillespie said he is "concerned about the grasp for power by higher levels of government and the increase in taxes to support this less efficient method of operation."

Return Authority — "The only way the continued tax increase can be effectively curbed," he stated, "is by returning more authority to local government, greater efficiency in all phases of government and the elimination of unnecessary or obsolete departments."

Gillespie was born Oct. 30, 1936, on a Town of Grand Chute farm. He is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin College of Agriculture and is an engineer officer in the Army Reserve. He owns the site planning firm of John Gillespie and Associates.

In March he was appointed to Appleton's Downtown Tomorrow Committee by Mayor Clarence Mitchell. He is a member of the education committee of the Fox River Valley Regional Planning Commission, the American Society of Landscape Architects, the Association of Wisconsin Planners and the Wisconsin Park and Recreation Society.

Adult Leader — Gillespie is an adult leader of the Fox Cities "Youth for Christ" and is chairman of a Patrick Catholic Church and St. Bridget, Royalton, will begin the state this summer for 30 Monday and end with first communion June 21. Classes will run from 8 to 11:30 a.m. Monday through Friday.

Plywood Firm Head Buys Marion Building — MARION — James Rogers, head of Rogers Plywood and Veneer, has purchased the building located on Main Street directly across the street from the city hall.

He has given no immediate plans for the property but he played a leading role in an earlier drive to acquire the land for park purposes. He is advertising to have the building razed.

Rogers purchased the building from Clintonville attorney Ralph Lauer.

Royalton, Lebanon Churches Plan School — LEBANON — Vacation religion school for children of St. Christ, and is chairman of a Patrick Catholic Church and St. Bridget, Royalton, will begin the state this summer for 30 Monday and end with first communion June 21. Classes will run from 8 to 11:30 a.m. Monday through Friday.

He is married and has two sons, 2-and 6-years-old.

Deer Crashes Through Plate Glass Window — MANAWA — Deer may be intelligent enough to avoid hunters in the fall, but several residents here are wondering if they've found reading teachers.

An estimated 100-pound doe Tuesday night pranced across lawns here, into the business district and gracefully entered Eastling Insurance Agency — through a 40-by-50-inch plate glass window.

Irish Elliott, Wednesday wondered if the deer jumped through the window trying to make a quick exit after seeing the sign on a building across the street — "Wolf Den."

The deer survived his shattering entry and was released at the west city limits. It received shoulder and leg cuts and did considerable damage to the floor and woodwork in the insurance building.

Owners of the building did not say whether the damage was covered by insurance.

Weyauwega Seeking New Superintendent

Applications Being Taken by Board for School District Post

WEYAUWEGA — The Weyauwega Union High School Board of Education announced Monday night it will start accepting applications immediately for superintendent of schools.

The new superintendent will replace H. James Ramsdell, who has resigned after two and one-half years at the helm of the Weyauwega school district to take a similar position with the New London Unified School District.

Ramsdell will assume his new duties at New London, July 1, but said he would continue to assist in the operation of the Weyauwega schools until a new superintendent is hired.

Ramsdell also is superintendent of the Weyauwega elementary school, but the district is in the process of consolidating to a kindergarten through grade 12 district which will put the entire district under one head.

In other business conducted at Monday's meeting, the board reviewed the 1964-65 preliminary budget and discussed purchase of a gas-fired incinerator.

New Dump Site Studied By Waupaca Council

Location Change Considered After Solons Hear Complaints on Littering Problem

WAUPACA — The problem of paper and debris blowing from the city dump and littering Lakeside Cemetery was brought to the city council's attention Tuesday night.

In a letter, Ray Roe, secretary of the Waupaca Cemetery Association, said the situation was called to the attention of the city in 1949 but nothing was done to correct the problem. He suggested the construction of a wire fence about eight feet high between the dump and cemetery.

Councilmen agreed that the situation should be corrected but they favored relocating the dump. Mayor Lloyd E. Matheson said the planning consultant retained by the city has recommended that the dump be relocated because one of the access roads to the city from the future U.S. 10 by-pass will be located near the present dump. The consultant, Matheson said, commented it would not be advisable for visitors to be required to pass a dump on their way into the city.

Mayor Matheson recommended that a meeting with nearby townships be held for the purpose of discussing the possibility of a joint facility at some other site. The present 40-acre site now being used is city owned.

The council approved a $300 donation to the Auxiliary Police for July 4th fireworks. The balance of the $450 needed by the auxiliary for fireworks has been donated by the Association of Commerce.

Also approved were eight Class B liquor licenses, two Class A licenses and one club liquor license.

A request from Leroy Haberkorn, athletic director, for curbing around the track at the athletic field was turned over to the board of public works for study. Haberkorn said it is virtually impossible to keep grass and weeds from growing out onto the track without a curb. He estimated the cost of material for the project would be between $800 and $1,000.

Attorneys Ask Postponement Of Dahlke Trial

RENO, Nev. (AP) — Attorneys for Douglas A. Dahlke, 27, Oshkosh, have asked that his trial on a murder charge be postponed from June 15 to July 27.

Dahlke is charged in the fatal shooting Oct. 12 of his wife, Gloria Jean, 26, near Reno.

C. Clifton Young and Jerry C. Whitehead, the attorneys, also asked the court provide funds for a psychiatric examination and for them to travel to Oshkosh to question witnesses.

The defense said it should have access to all material gathered by Dist. Atty. William J. Raggio if the court denies funds for the trip to Oshkosh.

Mrs. Dahlke's body was found buried in the basement of an Oshkosh home Jan. 30. Dahlke, a former Army man, pleaded innocent to the open murder charge in February.

Goldwater and Johnson Differ In Philosophy

People Will Have Clear Choice if They Are Chosen

BY JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON (AP)—If Sen. Barry Goldwater gets the Republican presidential nomination and runs against President Johnson, voters will get a chance to make a choice that hasn't been given them in years.

It will be a choice between two distinct philosophies of government as represented by the candidates if not exactly by the parties:

The liberalism of Johnson and the conservatism preached by Goldwater, although some consider the conservative label far too liberal for Goldwater.

Even so, the difference between the two men would be so apparent that no one could miss it.

Issue Discussion

Every four years Democrats and Republicans put on a song-and-dance — a so-called discussion of the issues — which is supposed to point out the difference between the two parties. In reality any difference is hardly visible.

The Democrats and Republicans these days are practically one and the same party and for the same reason. Both have their own batch of liberals and reactionaries but the majority in both are conservatives.

So for years in election after election voters have not really been choosing between parties so much as between individual candidates and then not on issues but on personality.

3 Examples

Three examples tell the story: Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, when he opposed Adlai E. Stevenson in 1952, was a national military hero, widely known and highly popular. Stevenson was a likeable man, too, but he had neither Eisenhower's prestige nor fame.

It so happened that Eisenhower was elected on the Republican ticket. But can anyone doubt he would have won just as overwhelmingly if he had run as a Democrat? The same two men went through the same routine again in 1956.

In 1960, there was little difference between the expressed philosophies of John F. Kennedy and Vice President Richard M. Nixon. Kennedy's record in the Senate had been only moderately liberal. Nixon talked the same.

Narrow Win

Unfortunately for Nixon, he had a knack of antagonizing people who had never been closer to him than a television screen. And Kennedy, a much more relaxed and friendly figure, won but only by a squeak.

Yet, when Kennedy sent some of his liberal programs to a Congress run by big Democratic majorities in both houses, they got stuck by the conservatives of his own party. Medical care is an example.

This year, at least, even though the two parties retained that same twin-like look, two candidates like Johnson and Goldwater would be definitely different in what they stood for.

If there was that same difference between the parties — one liberal, one highly conservative — the voters could make a far more intelligent choice of the party they wanted to run the government.

Goldwater Supporters

If the Goldwater supporters got control of the party — it's unlikely this year — long enough for it to be saturated by their views, the voters in time would have a clear-cut choice. But there's also danger in this for Republicans.

If the mood of the country turned out to be far more liberal than Goldwater seems to think — and republicanism becomes synonymous with conservatism in the public mind — it could wreck the party totally or for years.

But at least the nation would get in a Johnson-Goldwater fight, a chance long missing to show how it feels.

Organize Thinking

Goldwater as a presidential candidate would have to organize his thinking far better than he has so far while campaigning as a would-be candidate if he is going to present any clear-cut, comprehensible philosophy of government.

Up till now he's been mostly critical of the Democrats without offering any detailed and constructive program of his own.

The campaigns he and New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller put on have been almost incredible from a sober, political standpoint. They went in more for pep talks than programs. They didn't talk issues. They talked generalities.

Their whole show was, for those reasons, primitive politics.

Goldwater Now the Man to Beat

Senator Barry Goldwater has won the big one, the California presidential primary and the 86 delegate votes which go with it, but the manner and the margin of his victory is symptomatic of the wide divergence of candidate preferences among Republicans generally. Goldwater's major support came from the Los Angeles complex where it was heavy enough to overcome Rockefeller's lead in most of the rest of the state.

At the moment the Arizona Senator must be reckoned as the man to beat for the Republican nomination. The latest Associated Press survey shows Goldwater with 436 definite first ballot votes as against the 655 required for nomination. Goldwater backers claim he is close to the magic total now.

Goldwater won in California against the predictions of all the pollsters, just as Rockefeller confounded them in Oregon. This resurgence in the Goldwater fortunes could be important from a psychological standpoint. He was the leading candidate last fall before the late President Kennedy's assassination, but his glamor had been tarnished since that time. The win in California could start a bandwagon-type movement.

The California primary provided a clear-cut confrontation of the two main philosophies within Republican ranks, the conservative viewpoint and what might be labeled the middle-of-the-road approach. And at this time it is difficult to state that the primary helped in any way to clarify which approach represents majority Republican opinion.

Looking ahead to November, in fact, the most significant element in the California election may be this lack of resolution on Republican goals. It was a bitterly fought campaign and it will leave scars. We have had evidence in Wisconsin of this same bitterness between the right wing and the middle wing of the party.

Regardless who emerges as the Republican candidate, the major task for Republicans this summer and fall will be to fashion a united campaign which will appeal enough to the conservatives to win their hearty support and yet which will also be constructive enough to lure independent voters away from the entrenched national administration.

The President as an Orator

President Johnson in his address at Texas University commencement exercises outlined a heady vision of the goals he has set for himself as the nation's chief executive. He called for a "knowledge explosion" to help build what he has come to call "the Great Society." He said he "wants to achieve a broad national consensus" to wipe out paralysis and obstruction and create "a nation without rancor and a world without fear."

"I want a happy nation, not a harassed people—men with pride in their ancestry and hope for their posterity—but humble before their God and concerned always with the wants and needs of their fellow human beings," he declared. Then he continued:

"We are at a turning point in the history of our nation. One road leads to the Great Society, where man's spirit finds fulfillment in the works of his mind. The other road leads to a legacy of despair and degradation where man's hopes are overwhelmed by change he cannot control."

The president's speech writers and his delivery of their compositions has improved tremendously in six months. He has lost any reticence he may have had about following in the footsteps of the late President Kennedy, who was among our greatest corners of ringing phrases.

His current approach in declaring that he wants to be a president "of all the people" is creating a mood and an atmosphere which is going to make his Republican challenger's task an even more difficult one.

Promoting Better State Highways

Gov. Reynolds has several times said that he will continue to advocate acceleration of the state highway construction program, in spite of the crushing defeat of his original blueprint for a huge bond issue for freeway construction in the April referendum.

To some of his critics that might appear as bravado, a flying in the face of the spoken will of the electorate. But we don't believe it. The governor, in fact, may very well be right in sensing that there is a popular acceptance of the need for emphasis upon main-line highway routes, in spite of the negative vote on the record only two months ago.

That referendum proposition submitted to the public's inspection only one of the alternatives that might be considered for better highway planning and construction. The idea of a big bond issue was new, and obviously frightened many voters apprehensive about long-term debt for other state purposes and to finance plant expansion in local governments. The size of the program was without precedent. There was nowhere any acknowledgment of the possibility, indeed the probability, that the generous present state highway budget could be revised for more effective and economical highway construction. The ballot listed a particular form of taxation, out of a number that could have been identified as potential revenue sources, and one which drove one of the better organized economic interests in Wisconsin into the referendum campaign with potent effect.

The state government is now spending, in one way or another, about $200,000,000 a year for highway service and development. That is a tidy sum. The dispersion of these revenues is controlled in a highway budget that has not had a thorough review for two decades, at least. During those years there has been a huge and significant adjustment in the economy of the state and more important, a redistribution of its population. Some of the fixed expenditures of the highway budget will be difficult to modify. But the important fact is that no serious attempt has been made even to reappraise them.

For these reasons and others, we share the governor's conviction that the issue of a better state highway program is not dead. What is needed is a new approach, perhaps on a more modest scale, and embodying a willingness to reexamine the uses to which the substantial existing highway taxes are being put, as well as proposals to raise more highway money.

The history of our state highway effort during nearly half a century shows a kind of cyclic evolution. At intervals of about ten years there have been major policy decisions and program additions. The last major development was in 1955, when the present scale of motor fuel taxation was established. By that measure, the legislature of 1965 may find the people of Wisconsin ready for a new appraisal.

Looking Backward

100 YEARS AGO

Quoted from the Appleton Motor for June 9, 1864.

The opposition of the Secesh papers and the rattlesnakes generally, to the raising of the 100 Day men shows the foresight of these sympathizers with the rebellion.

They possessed enough second sight to know that these troops would relieve enough veterans from guard and post duty to so strengthen Grant's and Sherman's armies as to render them invincible to any forces the rebels could oppose to them. And they know that these western boys, once raised, would not content themselves with guarding rebel prisoners and garrisoning forts, but would want a hand in, and they had cause to fear the effect of adding 30,000 or 100,000 of such western boys as were to answer the 100 Day call to the armies operating against their friends.

They also hoped that Grant and Sherman would be weakened by the withdrawal of men whose terms had expired, and that in waiting in the slow operation of the draft, the summer would be frittered away and nothing accomplished, and a year gained to their Southern friends, and to themselves a chance at political success in the coming presidential campaign, and then a peace patched up and slavery saved. They consequently ridiculed and opposed 100 Day enlistments wherever they dared, but no opposition or cold water could stop it. You may vent your spite, gentlemen, on the 100 Day Breakers" as you call them, and ridicule the idea of clothing and feeding them, but it will do you no good.

Your fears are all about to be realized, for these men already are breaking the enemy. Thirty thousand of them, designed only to occupy the defenses of Washington, have demanded a hand in, have nobly volunteered and come to the front. And they will fight, too, and if needed longer than 100 days they will stay and help wind up the affairs of your Southern partners, regardless of your sympathy with traitors or radicals.

Two Appleton youths graduating from St. John Military Academy at Delafield were Richard Waldo and Dan Ornstein. Dan was to be one of the commencement speakers with the oration "Let's Find Ourselves." He was a staff member of the Cadet Review.

William Wolfe received the Craftsmanship Shield, highest senior honor at Appleton High School. Allen-Scott Report

Warren Commission's Report Now Delayed Until Sept. 1

BY ROBERT S. ALLEN AND PAUL SCOTT

The special commission investigating the assassination of President Kennedy has been forced to set a new target date for completion of its already overdue report — September 1.

Even that is tentative. The seven-member probing group had planned to publish its world-awaited findings by June 1. But a number of important witnesses are still to be heard, and crucial information still is being sought with no certainty when it can be obtained — if ever.

For example: Biggest gap in the commission's historic study is a comprehensive account of Lee Harvey Oswald's connections and activities during the three years he was in Russia as a "dedicated Marxist" and avowed defector.

The commission is still very much in the dark on this vital phase of the killer's life. Records and other material supplied by the Soviet have shed little light. The last batch, submitted some weeks ago, was of no material consequence. It chiefly supplemented and corroborated previous official documents.

Similarly, the State Department so far has provided scant significant information.

Secretary Rusk, Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson, who was in Moscow throughout the period Oswald lived in Russia, and members of the embassy's staff who had dealings with him have yet to testify. Several times, Rusk has been slated to appear, but crises and sudden trips to Europe and Southeast Asia necessitated postponements.

The commission still does not definitely know when these key State Department authorities will tell their stories.

STRANGE QUESTION — Also up in the air is when Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy will testify.

As exclusively disclosed in this column, the former First Lady has agreed to do that. But she has not signified when and in what manner — in person or in a written account.

A close friend of hers has told commission members Mrs. Kennedy is "going through a difficult period. She has good days and bad days. Perhaps what she is experiencing can best be described as undergoing the full reaction of what she has gone through. It's just catching up with her. She needs time to prepare herself for this ordeal, which it certainly will be."

The investigators expect Mrs. Kennedy to testify in person. But she may decide otherwise. They know she is consulting Attorney General Robert Kennedy, as she does on virtually all matters. She conferred with him before accepting the commission's invitation to appear.

Even more indefinite is a statement from President Johnson.

As reported by this column, the commission has indicated it will be glad to receive anything he cares to submit. So far there has been no word on what he will do.

Another factor delaying the investigators' report is the protracted Senate battle over the civil rights bill. This 10-week-old struggle has drastically curtailed the time and efforts of two of the probers — Senators Richard Russell, Ga., leader of the Southern bloc, and John Sherman Cooper, R-Ky., in the forefront of the fight for the legislation.

In the next several weeks, Mrs. Ruth Paine, in whose home Mrs. Marina Oswald was living at the time of the assassination, will be recalled for further questioning.

The probers particularly want to ask her about some baffling remarks made in the course of a conversation. As reported to the commission, Mrs. Paine's enigmatic statement was as follows:

"Do you think the government has done something they are ashamed of and are trying to cover up?"

"No, do you?" was the reply.

"Oh, no," said Mrs. Paine, "of course not."

"Then why did you ask?"

"I just wondered," said Mrs. Paine.

J. Lee Rankin, general counsel of the commission, is being advised to ask Attorney General Kennedy, CIA Director John McCone and other top officials to file affidavits that they have submitted all the documents and information in the files of their agencies relating to Oswald and the assassination.

This is being urged as a "precautionary measure."

GENTLEMANLY BATTLE

— One of the most significant aspects of the 10-week-long Senate debate over the civil rights measure is the restraint and decorum that has characterized it.

There have been a few instances of frayed tempers. But they were brief and left no lasting scars. However, the battle is far from over, and as the decisive votes near, the courtly atmosphere may change.

In the meanwhile, the debate continues amicably. Illustrative is the following exchange:

Senator Edmund Muskie, D-Me.: "The Congressional Record should reflect the fact that the Southern colleagues of my good friend from North Carolina and Louisiana are not present to hear the speech of the distinguished Senator from Pennsylvania. I wonder if, by the same reasoning, we could conclude that they fear they might be persuaded by the distinguished Senator that his views are correct."

Senator Sam Ervin, D-N.C.: "I should like to point out that they are absent for an entirely different reason. They already have possession of the truth, and they are now pondering some way in which to express the truth more eloquently in the hope that the Senator from Maine and the Senator from Pennsylvania will be converted to the right side of this issue."

State Primary in July, Suggestion of GOP, Has Its Advantages

BY JOHN WYNGAARD

MADISON — Curiously little public notice has been given to the declaration of the recent State Republican Convention proposing a change in the historic election calendar.

The convention urged, and the Republican legislative leadership next year presumably will sponsor, a change in the law to move up the traditional September primary election to a date before July 1.

The party convention asserted that it is necessary for a healthy political system that "voters be fully aware of the political philosophy, background and competence of candidates" and that "the period of time between primary and general election is not sufficient to adequately reach the electorate with such information."

ADVANTAGES

Off-hand, it may be surmised that the proposal will meet with no serious objections and that it will get considerable support from thoughtful citizens, political party workers of all persuasions, and the candidates themselves.

The political calendar arrangements deriving from 19th Century circumstances have little relevance today.

As in so many other practices and institutions in Wisconsin public affairs, the election dates originated in a frontier, primarily agricultural society. The spring elections were set at a time when transport over primitive roads would be available, on the one hand, and the rural majority of the electorate was not yet derailed by field preparation and crop planting.

The fall election schedules reflected the same economic interests. They were set at a time when farm harvesting chores over most of the state would be slackening in urgency, but before winter closed in the roads again.

Strictly Personal

All Curiosities at Zoo Not Seen Behind Bars

BY SYDNEY J. HARRIS

Purely Personal Prejudices: Nobody thinks of himself as ill-bred: if one were to ask the most ill-bred person to describe his manners in a word he would doubtless reply: "Earthy."

Few of us are as capable of discriminating between our opinion and our affection as well as John Selden, when he remarked: "I love apples the best of any fruit, but it does not follow that I must think apples to be the best of fruit."

Those who most make the future are most oblivious of its direction and consequences: men of action are concerned with immediate goals, and rarely have the time, temperament or inclination to envision the new problems created by their "practical solutions" of present difficulties.

What is called "symbolism" in art is effective and artistic only when the artist is unaware of it himself: the conscious manipulation of symbolism in a film or a novel is utterly self-defeating. Like levers who keep verbalizing their emotions and soon find that they have been drained of content.

The most curious array of creatures to be seen while visiting a zoo does not necessarily consist of those found behind the bars. No one is so religiously sensitive as the self-made man when his creator is called into question. I have little patience with stories and jokes about children not liking to go to school — being unalterably convinced that in such cases there is something very wrong with the child, or very wrong with the school, or both: for it is not a natural tendency of children to resist learning and socializing, but rather to enjoy them. Although "scientism" (which is making a false deity out of a mere process) deserves to be attacked, true science is not the cold and heartless thing it is often depicted by its detractors: rather, it contains a large spiritual element in its disinterested quest for truth, and, as Claude Bernard accurately put it: "Science increases our power in proportion as it lowers our pride."

To the oft-repeated statement these days, "You can't legislate people's feelings," one can only reply with Samuel Johnson's remark: "It is not within our power to be fond, but it is within our power to be kind." (And very much within our power to be just.)

In reading verbose academic analyses of Shakespeare's plays, we get the distinct impression that, to such pedants, the commentary is the thing.

Lawrence Says 4 Endings Were Possible for California Vote None Would Have Affected Strategy For Nominations

BY DAVID LAWRENCE
WASHINGTON — Though there were four ways that the presidential primary election in California could come out, the over-all impact on the campaign strategy of the would-be candidates in the next six weeks before the Republican National Convention would hardly have been changed, irrespective of Tuesday's voting in the Golden State.

If Governor Rockefeller had won, whether by a large or narrow margin, the Goldwater supporters would still have pointed to his lack of delegate strength and would have continued their efforts just the same.

If Senator Goldwater had won by a large margin, this would by no means have diminished the efforts of the Rockefeller forces, for they realize they have been far behind in delegate strength right along.

Narrow Margin
Even if it had been known that Senator Goldwater would win by a narrow margin, the Rockefeller campaign strategy would have been to continue the battle as vigorously as before on the assumption that if the governor himself cannot win the nomination, he might succeed in bringing about a stalemate. This could force the selection of either Vice President Nixon or Governor Scranton or Ambassador Lodge, each of whom has a substantial strength inside the Republican Party today.

The public-opinion polls didn't clarify the problem in advance of the voting. In fact, there are many persons who now are criticizing the pollsters for having predicted that the California primary would result in a substantial victory for Governor Rockefeller. But while these forecasts were by no means pleasant reading for the Goldwater supporters in recent days, the truth is that, if the polls had forecast a victory by a wide margin for Senator Goldwater, there might have been a lag inside his own campaign.

Intensified Efforts
The effect, indeed, of the discouraging percentages for Goldwater noted in the polls may have been the very thing that caused his supporters to intensify their efforts in the last few days and work harder to get out their vote than they otherwise would have done.

If the entire scene is surveyed from the standpoint of its influence on the final selection of a nominee at the convention, it is clear that the California victory gave the Goldwater cause a timely stimulus. For the anti-Goldwater folks were constantly spreading the idea that the Arizona senator would be all washed up and out of the race if he lost the California primary. There is a depth of feeling between the Goldwater and anti-Goldwater forces which doesn't augur well for the future of the Republican Party itself.

There is no doubt about the fact that the Republicans who are behind Senator Goldwater feel that he is dedicated to the cause of a "conservative liberalism" in America, and that his opponents have been wrongfully trying to picture him as impulsive in foreign policy and ultra-conservative in domestic policy.

Two Groups
The big question is whether there is a chance to reconcile the two groups in the party, and whether either former Vice President Nixon or Governor Scranton of Pennsylvania could in the job of reconciliation in the event Senator Goldwater doesn't make the grade.

While Senator Goldwater has an even chance of winning the Republican presidential nomination, he is still a long way from being going on behind the scenes contender will lose votes as some of his delegates drop away.

The latest tabulation by the United Press International shows that he has approximately 433 pledged votes, and he, of course, needs 655. There are small blocs of votes committed to Messrs. Lodge, Nixon, Rockefeller, Scranton and "favorite sons," but there is a large bloc of 238 uncommitted votes.

Let's EXPLORE YOUR MIND

By Sylvanus M. Duval, Ph.D. and Evelyn M. Duval, Ph.D.

A SUCCESSFUL PERSON IS ONE WHO CAN MAKE HASTY DECISIONS! TRUE ☐ FALSE ☐

False. Here's how you can tell a successful person: 1) He lives in the real world, rather than in his own dream world. 2) He can make up his mind, but doesn't make half-baked or hasty decisions. 3) He is really accomplishing things. What he does may not be big or important, but it is substantial. Be aware of the man who's always planning great things, but so far has accomplished nothing. 4) He doesn't worry overly much or mourn about past mistakes; he just keeps on going.

Attorney From Little Chute New State Bar Leader

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

MADISON — G. H. Van Hoof, a Little Chute attorney, has been elected to the board of governors of the State Bar of Wisconsin's Seventh District which comprises the state's Fox River Valley region.

Elections of officers of the bar were announced following the completion of a mail ballot of the members of the professional society. The selection of Donald C. O'Melia, Rhinelander, as president of the organization was announced previously.

Scott Paper Completes Rebuilding of Storage Lagoon at Oconto Falls

OCONTO FALLS — Scott Paper Co. today notified the State Committee on Water Pollution that rebuilding of the repaired and strengthened storage lagoon for spent sulphite liquor was completed Wednesday, 49 days ahead of schedule.

The pulp mill began pumping all strong spent liquor into the lagoon early today, according to D. J. Dughie, manager of Scott's Wisconsin operations. No further release of strong liquor to the stream is planned during the months of warm dry weather, he said.

The repair on the lagoon included completely rebuilding the drainage system whose failure last autumn led to liquor leakage into the Oconto River. Cost of the construction job exceeded $75,000, Dughie stated.

State orders require that by June 1, 1965, the Falls mill complete construction of a water clarifier and sludge dewaterer. By March 1, 1966, after official approval of plans by the pollution committee, the mill is scheduled to complete construction of its major project for collection, evaporation and burning of strong spent sulphite liquor.

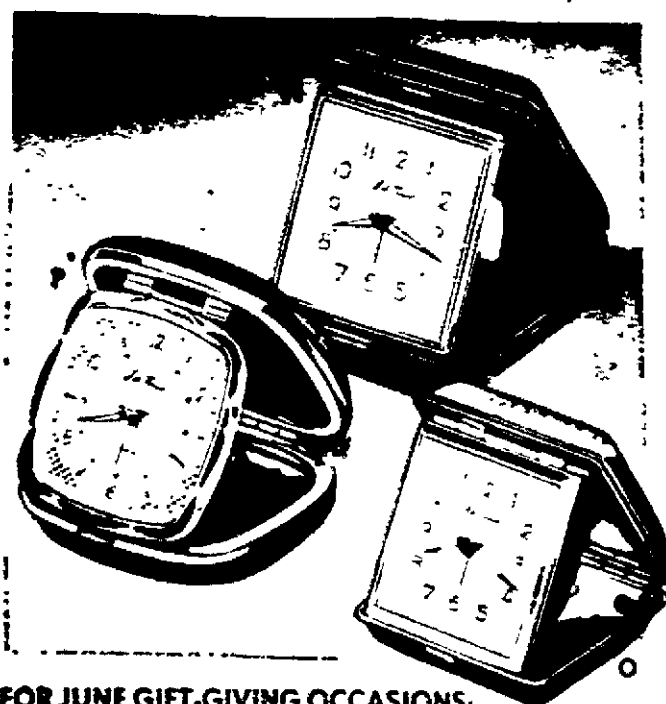

Dismiss Complaint

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

MADISON — A complaint about interference with navigation on Chute Lake resulting from a shore fill on the property of Howard Eslein of Oconto Falls has been dismissed by a Public Service Commission. The commission said there was no basis for the complaint brought by William J. O'Malley, Coordinating Committee for of Milwaukee.

Firemen Called To Paper Mill at Combined Locks

COMBINED LOCKS — Volunteer firemen were called to Combined Locks Paper Company about 4:30 p.m. Tuesday when a failure in the workings of a generator caused extensive smoke in the mill.

No fire apparatus was used of the generator, but production after the cause of the smoke was determined as the generator was repaired.

Four UW Centers to Offer Program in Curriculum Planning

New emphasis will be given a course called "Practices in Curriculum Planning" by the University of Wisconsin Extension Division in its fall program.

The course, which will be offered in Menasha, Green Bay, Ripon and Manitowoc, will concentrate on ways to draw in both community thinking and expert professional advice in tailoring school curricula to fit the needs of particular communities.

The Extension Division will offer 26 courses in 22 Wisconsin communities next fall for teachers seeking self-improvement. These Department of Education classes are offered for both and Manitowoc.

Goldwater Win May Be Pleasing Johnson

must have varied strength to meet varied dangers.

He added, pointedly:

"The response must suit the threat. Those who would answer every problem with nuclear weapons, display not bravery but bravado, not wisdom but a wanton disregard for the survival of the world and the future of the race."

Goldwater had recently discussed the possible use of low-yield nuclear weapons to strip the leaves from jungle trees in Viet Nam so Communist guerrillas could be exposed from the air.

Johnson Jibes

And Johnson's statement was reminiscent of those he has made on half a dozen public occasions when he has jibed at Goldwater's suggestion that the United States should have sent Marines to Cuba when water for the Guantanamo Naval Base was cut off.

On several occasions, the President has suggested that Goldwater's proposed response to the water cutoff was most unsuitable to the threat. Johnson has said he found it much wiser to send one admiral to shut the water off by cutting the pipeline than to send in Marines to turn the water on.

A month ago, in Knoxville, Tenn., Johnson jabbed Goldwater on a different front. Talking about 1936 opponents of the Social Security program, the President said, "If those men had had their way, the 'for sale' sign would be on TVA this very hour."

Knoxville Speech

In that same Knoxville speech, Johnson also took indirect issue with Nixon. Without mentioning names he scoffed at those who had labeled his anti-poverty program "a cruel hoax."

That phrase had been used by Nixon a week earlier.

On other occasions, the President has found apparent enjoyment in making fun of Nixon—particularly after the former vice president returned from a globe circling tour on behalf of the Pepsi-Cola Co. Johnson was quick to suggest that Nixon doubtless had been so busy fostering the best interests of the company that it was doubtful he had really gained much information during visits to such places as Saigon.

Goldwater has been Johnson's target more often than Nixon, however—even in impromptu remarks.

On one occasion, the President made light of a Republican-inspired campaign to collect pennies to pay the White House light bill. He said Goldwater had outdone most Republicans by contributing a whole nickel, "a wooden nickel."

Lively Race Certain if GOP Picks Goldwater

path of appeasement that we followed in the 1930s," he said.

The Democrats have been making a book on Goldwater's utterances for several years. Any quotations they might have missed probably were dug up by Rockefeller's researchers and injected into the governor's attack on the senator.

Democratic speakers have only to quote Rockefeller's assertion that Goldwater's call for an end to foreign aid, his opposition to arms control measures and his proposal to quit the United Nations if Red China were admitted add up to a "blueprint for defeat and disaster."

Then there was the matter of civil rights, where Johnson is committed to all-out support of the bill before the Senate and Goldwater is opposed to some of its provisions.

Depending on what the GOP platform has to say on the issue, a Goldwater-Johnson contest could have wide repercussions in the South. There the Democratic President probably would get a run for his money from a senator long the favorite of Southern Republicans.

ago by Rusk in which he warned that if the Communists persisted in aggression in South Viet Nam the war against them might be expanded.

This strengthened speculation in official quarters that carrying the fight to North Viet Nam, perhaps by aerial bombings, was under consideration. But informants said the administration was reluctant to expand the war unless it proved absolutely necessary.

There was no hint of enlarging the war to include military action against Communist North Viet Nam or of putting U.S. military forces into Thailand or assigning reinforcements to the Southeast Asian area generally.

Reedy declined to answer any questions, explaining to reporters, "This is all I have to say about it."

The emphasis in the statement on improving "the efficiency and effectiveness" of going programs contrasted sharply with a speech made here two weeks
